Jason, based on his response below, I believe that we could go ahead and provide a voluntary cancellation letter. We also have a letter to send to the insurance company so that they send a Form K to cancel the insurance too. Patrick, can you please process this voluntary cancellation. Thx, Suzanne

Good morning,

This company owner has not followed up on the voluntary cancellation form. Per the owner, his party bus is not currently insured.

Good afternoon,

In the event that the carrier does not submit a voluntary cancellation letter, the owner states the bus is not currently insured in his email response below. Just a heads up on that.

Good afternoon Mr. Kramer,

I left you a voicemail at 425-246-3736 requesting a call back to schedule the follow-up compliance review as part of the suspended penalty in Order 01 of Docket TE-190321. I am unsure if your company is still operating as a charter and excursion carrier in Washington state as you have not filed your annual report for the previous three years and the Secretary of State shows your business as Administratively Dissolved. Can you let me know if you are still operating your party bus, and if so we will need to schedule your compliance review. If you are not, your certificate is still showing active with the Utilities and Transportation Commission and should be cancelled.

Please respond as soon as you can.

Respectfully,
