RE: Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission v Apex Movers, LLC
Commission Staff's Response to Application for Mitigation of Penalties
Docket TV-130963

Dear Mr. King:

On August 6, 2013, the Utilities and Transportation Commission issued a $50 Penalty Assessment in Docket TV-130983 against Apex Movers, LLC for two violations of Washington Administrative Code (WAC) 480-15-480, which requires household goods carriers to furnish annual reports to the commission no later than May 1 each year.¹

On August 9, 2013, Apex Movers, LLC wrote the commission requesting mitigation of penalties (Mitigation Request). In its Mitigation Request, Apex Movers, LLC does not dispute that the violation occurred.² The company states, "Called in April not sure whom I spoke with, but asked if check and report just need to be postmarked by May 1st. I was told that it would not be considered late. However, I am no [sic] receiving notification of penalties for receiving on May 3rd."

It is the company's responsibility to ensure that the regulatory fee is paid and the annual report is filed by the May 1 deadline. On March 1, 2013, Annual Report forms and Regulatory Fee packets were mailed to all regulated household goods carriers.³ The cover letter informed the return the materials by May 1, 2013, to avoid enforcement action. On May 10, 2013, the Commission mailed a letter to those companies that had not yet filed an annual report notifying them that, to date, they had incurred a penalty of $700.⁴ The letter went on to explain that companies who filed their annual reports no later than May 24, 2013, would receive mitigated penalties of $25 per day. An additional penalty of $25 per day would be assessed for each instance in the previous five years that the company received a penalty for filing a late report, up to a maximum of $100 per day.

Apex Movers, LLC filed its annual report on May 3, which is two business days past the deadline of May 1, 2013. The penalty was mitigated from $100 per day to $25 per day, for a total of $50. Because the company has not presented any new or compelling information, staff does not support further mitigation.

If you have any questions regarding this recommendation, please contact Lynda Holloway, Compliance Investigator, at (360) 664-1129, or lholloway@utc.wa.gov.

Sincerely,

Sharon Wallace, Assistant Director
Consumer Protection and Communications

FOR VIOLATIONS OF LAWS AND RULES

PENALTY ASSESSMENT: TV-130963
PENALTY AMOUNT: $50

APEX MOVERS, LLC
801 Valley Ave. NW, Suite B
Puyallup, WA 98371

According to the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) records, you have violated Washington Administrative Code (WAC) 480-15-480, which requires household goods carriers to file annual reports and pay regulatory fees each year by May 1. You did not file an annual report or pay regulatory fees by May 1, 2013.

Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 81.04.405 authorizes the Commission to assess penalties of $100 for violations of Commission rules. Each violation is a separate and distinct offense and, in the case of a continuing violation, every day's continuance is a separate and distinct violation. The Commission interprets noncompliance with WAC 480-15-480 beyond May 1 as a continuing violation, and assesses penalties of $100 for each day a company fails to file its report or pay its regulatory fees after that date.

As a result, the Commission hereby notifies you that it has assessed penalties against you in the amount of $50 on the following basis:

On March 1, 2013, the Commission mailed 2012 annual report forms and 2013 regulatory fee packets to all household goods carriers registered in Washington state. A letter from the Commission's Acting Executive Director Steven V. King instructed these companies to file annual reports and pay regulatory fees by May 1, 2013. The letter stated that failure to file the annual report by May 1 would result in penalties, and possible cancellation of the company's permit to operate in Washington. The deadline for requesting an extension to file your annual report was April 24. You did not request an extension.

On May 10, the Commission issued a notice to companies that had not yet filed their annual report or paid regulatory fees, informing these companies that they were subject to enforcement action, including penalties that began accruing on May 2. Companies that filed their annual reports and paid regulatory fees after May 1, but on or before May 24, 2013, are subject to penalties that the Commission uses its discretion to mitigate to $25 per day if the company had not filed late in prior years. Companies that were late in prior years are subject to an additional $25 per day for each year they were late, up to a total of $100 per day.

For first-time late filers who filed their report after May 24, the Commission will mitigate the penalties to 50 percent of the maximum amount. No further mitigation will be granted unless the company provides new information that is unrelated to these factors. Mitigation will not be granted on the basis that a company was unaware that a report must be filed.

On May 3, 2013, APEX MOVERS, LLC, filed its 2012 annual report and paid its 2013 regulatory fee. That date is two business days from May 1, when penalties began to accrue, resulting in a potential penalty assessment of $200. APEX MOVERS, LLC, has not previously missed the deadline for filing its annual report and paying its regulatory fees. The Commission, therefore, exercises its discretion to mitigate the penalty to $25 per day, resulting in a total penalty of $50.

Your penalty is due and payable now. If you believe the violation did not occur, you may request a hearing to contest the penalty assessment. If there is a reason for the violation that you believe should excuse you from the penalty, you may ask for mitigation (reduction) of this penalty. See RCW 81.04.405.

You have the right to present your request for review or mitigation at a hearing, but you are not required to do so. If you do, the Commission will review the evidence supporting your request in an informal hearing, called a Brief Adjudicative Proceeding, before an administrative law judge. The administrative law judge will consider your plea and notify you of his or her decision.

You must act within 15 days after receiving this notice to do one of the following:

- Pay the amount due.
- Request a hearing to contest the occurrence of the violations.
- Request mitigation to contest the amount of the penalty.

Please indicate your selection on the enclosed form and send it to the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission, Post Office Box 47250, Olympia, Washington 98504-7250, within FIFTEEN (15) days after you receive this notice.

If you do not act within 15 days, the Commission may refer this matter to the Office of the Attorney General for collection. The Commission will then sue you to collect the penalty.

DATED at Olympia, Washington, and effective August 6, 2013.

Administrative Law Judge

Dear Regulated Company:

Reference: Your 2012 Annual Report and 2013 Regulatory Fees are Due May 1

State law requires you to file an annual report and pay regulatory fees to the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (commission).

What is required of you?

By May 1, you must:

- Complete and file one paper copy or electronic version of the enclosed 2012 annual report form
- Pay your 2013 regulatory fees

What happens if you do not file a completed annual report and pay regulatory fees on time?

If you do not file your company's completed annual report and pay the regulatory fees by May 1, the commission will assess a financial penalty of $100 for each business day after May 1 that the report is not filed and/or the fees are unpaid. You may seek mitigation of the penalties in response to the assessment you receive after you have filed a completed annual report and paid your regulatory fees. Any potential mitigation of the penalty, if any, will depend on the reason it is late and whether you have filed late in prior years. Staff may also initiate proceedings to request the commission revoke your authority to operate in Washington.

What happens if you do not pay the regulatory fees by May 1?

If the commission does not receive your company's regulatory fees by May 1, you will incur a 2 percent penalty on the amount due and a 1 percent monthly interest charge on the unpaid balance. These amounts apply in addition to the assessment of a penalty of $100 per business day after May 1 that the fees are unpaid.

May you request an extension of time if you are unable to file the annual report or pay your regulatory fees on time?

You may file a written request for an extension to file your completed annual report; however, the commission will not extend the deadline for paying regulatory fees. Any extension request must be filed with the commission by April 24, 2013, and must state a valid reason for why you need an extension and identify a specific date by which you will file your completed annual report. The commission will notify you by May 1 whether your request is approved or denied. Even if your request is approved, you will still be liable for penalties and interest payments if you fail to pay your regulatory fees by May 1.

What should you do if your company is no longer operating in Washington?

You may cancel your registration or permit by using the cancellation forms available on the commission's website at www.utc.wa.gov; however, if your company operated in Washington at any time during the 2012 calendar year, you must pay regulatory fees and file a closing annual report based on the months of operation during 2012 even if you cancel your registration or permit.

May you designate any information in your annual report as confidential?

Only if you satisfy two conditions:

(1) You are eligible to request confidential treatment only if your company is regulated under Title 80 RCW, that is, if you operate an electric, natural gas, telecommunications, or water company. Transportation companies, regulated under Title 81 RCW, may not request confidential treatment of documents because the authority for such treatment is found only in RCW 80.04.095. If a Title 81 company files its annual report or fee sheet as confidential, the commission will not treat it as confidential.

(2) You must follow the steps for filing confidential documents in WAC 480-07-160. You may find this rule on the commission website, www.utc.wa.gov/annualreports.

Please note: The regulatory fee sheet portion of your report is not a confidential document and will not be accorded confidential treatment under the rule. The commission will not, however, disclose credit card information you list on the fee sheet.

May you perform some of these tasks online?

Yes. You may complete the following tasks from the annual reports page at the commission website www.utc.wa.gov/annualreports.

- Obtain electronic versions of annual report forms;
- Pay regulatory fees;

Where do you mail the completed annual report form and regulatory fee payment?

Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission
PO Box 47250
Olympia, WA 98504-7250

The commission must receive your annual report form and regulatory fee payment on or before May 1, without regard to when you mail them. The commission will no longer consider this filing to be timely if it is postmarked on that date. If you mail the completed form and payment, therefore, you must do so sufficiently in advance for them to be delivered to the commission on or before May 1. Forms and payment the commission receives after that date will be considered late and subject to the penalties described in this notice without regard to when you mailed them.
