RE: Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission v. Tacoma Moving & Storage Co

Commission Staff's Response to Application for Mitigation of Penalties TV-140995

Dear Mr. King:

On June 6, 2014, the Utilities and Transportation Commission issued a $1,000 Penalty Assessment in Docket TV-140995 against Tacoma Moving & Storage Co for 10 violations of Washington Administrative Code (WAC) 480-15-480, which requires household goods carrier companies to furnish annual reports to the commission no later than May 1 each year.¹

On June 30, 2014, Tacoma Moving & Storage Co wrote the commission requesting mitigation of penalties (Mitigation Request).² In its Mitigation Request, Tacoma Moving & Storage Co does not dispute that the violation occurred. The company states, "Please remove the proposed assessment of a $1,000 penalty, based on our attempt at filing the report online on 4/29/2014. We were under the impression that it was filed successfully on 4/29/2014. The method of scanning and attaching gave us errors that, we thought, had been corrected. I would have resubmitted this earlier, but I have been out of the office taking care of my elderly mother post-surgery."

It is the company's responsibility to ensure that the regulatory fee is paid and the annual report is filed by the May 1 deadline. On February 28, 2014, Annual Report packets were mailed to all regulated household goods companies. The instructions for annual report completion page of the annual report informed the regulated company that it must complete the annual report form, pay the regulatory fees, and return the materials by May 1, 2014, to avoid enforcement action.

On June 30, 2014, Tacoma Moving & Storage Co filed its 2013 annual report and paid the regulatory fees and late payment penalty. The company has been active since August 27, 2003. Tacoma Moving & Storage Co was delinquent in filing the 2012 annual report. Staff does not support the company's request to remove the penalty assessment. However, due to the compelling reasons provided in the company's statement, staff does support mitigation of the penalty. Staff recommends a reduced penalty of $25 per day for a total penalty assessment of $250.

If you have any questions regarding this recommendation, please contact Amy Andrews, Regulatory Analyst, at (360) 664-1157, or aandrews@utc.wa.gov.

Sincerely,

Sondra Walsh, Director
Administrative Services

NOTICE OF PENALTIES INCURRED AND DUE FOR VIOLATIONS OF LAWS AND RULES

PENALTY ASSESSMENT: TV-140995
PENALTY AMOUNT: $1,000

Tacoma Moving & Storage Co
1314 East 26th Street
Tacoma, WA 98421

According to Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) records, you have violated Washington Administrative Code (WAC) 480-15-480, which requires household goods carrier companies to file their annual reports and pay regulatory fees each year by May 1. You did not file an annual report or pay regulatory fees by May 1, 2014.

Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 81.04.080 authorizes the Commission to assess penalties of $100 for violations of Commission rules. Each violation is a separate and distinct offense and, in the case of a continuing violation, every day's continuance is a separate and distinct violation. The Commission interprets noncompliance with WAC 480-15-480 beyond May 1 as a continuing violation, and assesses penalties of $100 for each day a company fails to file its report or pay its regulatory fees after that date.

As a result, the Commission has assessed penalties against you in the amount of $1,000 on the following basis:

On February 28, 2014, the Commission mailed the 2013 annual report forms and the 2014 regulatory fee packets to all household goods carrier companies registered in Washington. The instructions page for the annual report form instructed these companies to file annual reports and pay regulatory fees by May 1, 2014. The instructions page also stated that failure to file the annual report by May 1 would result in penalties. The deadline for requesting an extension to file your annual report was April 17. You did not request an extension.

As of May 15, 2014, Tacoma Moving & Storage Co has not filed its 2013 annual report or paid its 2014 regulatory fee. May 15 is 10 business days from May 1, resulting in a total penalty of $1,000.

Your penalty is due and payable now. If you believe the violation did not occur, you may request a hearing to contest the penalty assessment. The Commission will grant that request only if material issues of law or fact require consideration of evidence and resolution in a hearing. A request for a hearing must include a written statement of the reasons supporting that request.

¹See attachment A for a copy of the penalty assessment sent on June 6, 2014

²See attachment B for a copy of Tacoma Moving & Storage's Mitigation Request received on June 30, 2014

Failure to provide such a statement will result in denial of the request. If there is a reason for the violation that you think should excuse or reduce the penalty, you may ask for mitigation (reduction) of this penalty through evidence presented at a hearing or in writing. A request for mitigation must include a written statement of the reasons supporting that request. Failure to provide such a statement will result in denial of the request. See RCW81.04.405.

If you properly present your request for a hearing and the Commission grants that request, the Commission will review the evidence supporting your dispute of the violation or application for mitigation in a Brief Adjudicative Proceeding, before an administrative law judge. The administrative law judge will consider the evidence and will notify you of his or her decision.

You must act within 15 days after receiving this notice to do one of the following:

- Pay the amount due.
- Request a hearing to contest the occurrence of the violations.
- Request mitigation to contest the amount of the penalty.

Please indicate your selection on the enclosed form and send it to the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission, Post Office Box 47250, Olympia, Washington 98504-7250, within FIFTEEN (15) days after you receive this notice.

If you do not act within 15 days, the Commission may refer this matter to the Office of the Attorney General for collection, which may file suit in state court to collect the penalty. The Commission may also initiate proceedings under WAC 480-15-450 to cancel your permit to operate as a household goods carrier in Washington.

DATED at Olympia, Washington, and effective June 6, 2014.

MARGUERITE E. FRIEDLANDER
Administrative Law Judge

Marguerite Friedlander:

Please remove the proposed assessment of a $1,000 penalty, based on our attempt at filing the report online on 4/29/14. We were under the impression that it was filed successfully on 4/29/2014. The method of scanning and attaching gave us errors that, we thought, had been corrected.

I would have resubmitted this earlier, but I have been out of the office taking care of my elderly mother, post-surgery. This is the earliest opportunity I've had to address this issue a second time.

Attached is or original report completed on 4/29/2014, with the addition of the penalty and interest calculation now entered on page 6. We feel the $1,000.00 fine is an undue hardship based on our attempt to comply by the 5/01/2014 due date, and based on our actual fee of $70.40.

Thank you for your consideration I this matter.
