RE: UG-250058, Cascade Advice No. W25-01-02
Revision to the Washington Incentive Program Pilot Plan

Cascade Natural Gas Corporation ("Cascade" or "Company") filed Advice No. W25-01-02 on January 24, 2025, to introduce the Washington Incentive Program Pilot Plan that Cascade seeks to commence on March 1, 2025. Cascade now files to revise the Washington Incentive Program Pilot Plan, which is referenced in the proposed Tariff sheet, Third Revision Sheet No. 301-B, as the guiding document for the proposed pilot.

All Tariff sheets Cascade filed on March 1, 2025, remain as filed, and Cascade's requested effective date of March 1, 2025, also remains unchanged.

The Washington Incentive Program Pilot Plan is revised in accordance with a conversation Cascade had with The Energy Project ("TEP") and Washington Utility and Transportation Commission ("Commission") Staff on February 14, 2025. TEP requested that Cascade revise the plan to increase the inspections on third-party projects and to replace language offering Community Action Agencies the first right of refusal on completing the air sealing measure on each project with generalized language allowing collaboration when useful and beneficial to contractors, Agencies, and customers.

The revisions to the Washington Incentive Program Pilot Plan were shared with TEP and Commission Staff on February 14, 2025.
