

STATE OF WASHINGTON
— OFFICE OF GOVERNOR JAY INSLEE —

EXECUTIVE ORDER 22-04

IMPLEMENTING THE WASHINGTON STATE PRO-EQUITY ANTI-RACISM (PEAR) PLAN & PLAYBOOK

WHEREAS, the Legislature and I created the Washington State Office of Equity (“Office of Equity”) in April 2020 to: (1) promote access to equitable opportunities and resources that reduce disparities and improve outcomes statewide across state government consistent with RCW 43.06D.020; (2) support executive branch state agencies and executive branch boards and commissions (“state agencies”) in our commitment to be an anti-racist government system; (3) partner with state employees and communities to develop the state’s comprehensive equity strategic plan and outcome measures designed to bridge opportunity gaps and reduce disparities; and (4) publish and report the effectiveness of agency programs on reducing disparities using input from the communities served by those programs; and

WHEREAS, in December 2020, I declared that Washington will be an anti-racist state and committed to take actions that hold our state to that commitment. Washington is a state where all are welcomed and will have the opportunity to thrive regardless of race, ethnicity, creed, color, national origin, citizenship or immigration status, sex, honorably discharged veteran or military status, sexual orientation, or the presence of sensory, mental, or physical disability; and

WHEREAS, determinants of equity are the driving factors that impact the overall quality of life for all Washingtonians. King County established the following 14 determinants of equity: economic justice, state and local practices, jobs and job training, justice systems and laws, health and human services, food systems, environment and natural resources, community and public service, transportation and mobility, community and economic development, and housing and home ownership, early childhood development, and education. I agree that these are appropriate determinants of equity and would also add digital access and literacy. By adding digital access and literacy, which is an issue creating additional divides and gaps between Washingtonians, the state has identified 15 determinants of equity. Eliminating disparities in terms of access, practices and procedures, quality of services, and programs in these 15 determinants of equity correlate to better outcomes for people and a Washington where all can thrive; and

WHEREAS, the Office of Equity gathered the collective wisdom of thousands of community members, state employees, board and commission members, state employees, a host of partners across many sectors, and members of all branches of state government to co-create the state’s inaugural five-year Washington State Pro-Equity Anti-Racism (PEAR) Plan & Playbook (“PEAR Plan & Playbook”), Washington’s approach for achieving pro-equity and social justice across state government. The PEAR Plan & Playbook is designed to bridge opportunity gaps and reduces disparities so everyone in Washington flourishes and achieves their full potential; and

WHEREAS, the PEAR Plan & Playbook establishes a unified vision of equity for state government, mission, values, and goals, and contains a step-by-step playbook for developing, implementing, and embedding PEAR into every government action across state government. It reflects both how we do our daily work and who we are at our core – public servants with a shared desire for promoting equity, justice, access, and belonging for the people we serve and our colleagues who serve them; and

WHEREAS, the PEAR Equity Impact Review (EIR) framework describes a five-step process that blends numerical data and descriptive, community narrative data to inform agency planning, decision-making, and implementation of actions that achieve equitable access to opportunities and resources that reduce disparities and improve equitable outcomes statewide. Conducting an EIR is necessary prior to proposing changes to agency policies, programs, and practices. Our people and environment are both healthy and flourish when we work together with those experiencing inequities to ensure that everyone employed or served by state government is treated with fairness, dignity, honor, and respect; and

WHEREAS, the PEAR framework identifies priority investment in the 15 determinants of equity to achieve outcomes that benefit all tribes, communities, and employees of Washington’s ecosystem, and calls for investing more of our state’s resources “upstream” to address root causes where the needs are greatest to ensure that individuals in underserved communities have their basic needs met long term in Washington’s ecosystem; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, Governor of the state of Washington, by virtue of the power vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the state of Washington, do hereby order and direct as follows:
