

Agenda, Market Work Group, Workshop #1
April 30, 2020, 10:00a – 3:00p
Recorded Webinar

Thu, Apr 30	Topic	Presenter
10:00 – 10:15	Welcome, house and call logistics, agenda review	Mary Wiencke and Nicole Hughes
10:15 - 11:00	How Markets fit into Utility Resource Planning and Operations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Resource Planning - Market Resources - Load and Generation Variability 	Rick Link/PacifiCorp
11:00 – 12:00	How transmission works <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Overview of the Physical system – NW and WECC - Considerations and limitations of the system - Transmission planning and development 	Ravi Aggarwal/BPA
12:00 – 12:30	Lunch Break
12:30 -1:15	How transmission works <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - OATT Framework – contract path approach - RTO Structures – flow-based approach - Other types of transmission tariffs in the west 	Sarah Edmonds/PGE
1:15 - 2:00	How energy markets work: Survey of market structures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Bilateral Markets - Role of Trading Hubs in Bilateral Markets - Organized Markets 	Jeff Spires/Powerex
2:00 – 2:45	Comparison of market structures and benefits <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Market objectives - Benefits/limitations of bilateral markets - Benefits/limitations of centralized markets 	Tim Belden/EGPS
2:45 – 3:00	Q &A	Chairs
3:00	Adjourn	