WASHINGTON UTILITIES AND TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION,

Complainant,

V.

SIXTH SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER
ORDER APPROVING
REFILED TARIFFS

Respondent.

Respondent.

The Commission on December 10, 1991, entered its Fourth Supplemental Order in this docket, rejecting suspended tariffs and authorizing the respondent to refile tariffs for permanent rates and for refunds.

On December 20, 1991, the company filed tariff revisions naming permanent rates which comply with the terms of the Commission order.

FINDINGS

The Commission finds that the tariff revisions filed by Northwest Garbage Co., Inc., are in compliance with the Commission's Fourth Supplemental Order and that the tariff revisions should become effective as filed.

ORDER

THE COMMISSION ORDERS That the tariff revisions attached to this order, filed in this docket by Sno-King Garbage Co., Inc., on December 20, 1991, with an inserted effective date of January 1, 1992, shall become effective as filed. The rates, charges, and conditions named in the revisions will be applicable for service rendered on or after January 1, 1992.

¹Since the proceeding was filed, respondent's name has been changed to Waste Management - Sno-King, Inc. For ease in reference, we continue to use the name under which respondent began the proceeding.

THE COMMISSION ALSO ORDERS That the Commission retains jurisdiction over this proceeding to effectuate the provisions of this order and prior orders entered herein.

DATED at Olympia, Washington and effective this day of December, 1991.
