4005 Rural Broadband Experiment

Authorized Rural Broadband Experiment (RBE) recipients must address the certification for public interest obligations and provide a list of newly served community anchor institutions.

Public Interest Obligations – FCC 14-98 (paragraphs 26-29, 78)

Please address Line 4001 regarding compliance with the Commission's public interest obligations. All RBE participants must provide a response to Line 4001.

4001. Recipient certifies that it is offering broadband meeting the requisite public interest obligations consistent with the category for which they were selected, including broadband speed, latency, usage capacity, and rates that are reasonably comparable to rates for comparable offerings in urban areas.

Community Anchor Institutions – FCC 14-98 (paragraph 79)

4003a. RBE participants must provide the number, names, and addresses of community anchor institutions to which they newly deployed broadband service in the preceding calendar year. On this line, please respond (yes – attach new community anchors, no – no new anchors) to indicate whether this list will be provided.

If yes to 4003A, please provide a response for 4003B.

4003b. Provide the number, names and addresses of community anchor institutions to which the recipient newly began providing access to broadband service in the preceding calendar year.

network providers are able to do so. TracFone provides service using the networks from several of the leading wireless companies in the nation, including Verizon Wireless, AT&T Mobility, and T-Mobile. TracFone relies on those networks' reliability in all situations, including emergency situations. Each of those companies complies with applicable requirements for emergency service, including available power supplies. Those network operators have implemented state-of-the-art network reliability standards, which TracFone and its customers benefit from their high standards.

TracFone will be able to function in emergency situations to the extent that its underlying
