Docket No. TC-060989

3.b) I waive a hearing and ask for an administrative decision on the information I present here:

1. In Nov of 2005, I notified WUTC that because of overwhelming events. I would most likely not be in business past Dec. 31, 2005. Again in January, spoke to Officer McLoed reconfirming that I was no longer in business, as of Dec. 31st.
2. I did not renew my vehicle regulatory registration, because I was no longer in business.
3. The WUTC was notified by my insurance company that my required liability insurance was concealed in January of 2006.
4. I did not complete my report, because I was no longer in business. I thought that WUTC should have been aware of this by than.
5. All my charters and licenses have been transferred to another company.
6. I assumed that the annual report was a blanket form mailed from a mailing list. The fact that I thought WUTC knew I was no longer in business and I had not made any money for 2005, which I had lost over $10,000 and still paying off debts. I assumed the report was not required.

If this report is still required, please send another and I will complete it.

Thank you for your time.
