To whom it may concern

Your Honor

I am writing this letter to you to please kindly forgive my penalty due to the following unforeseen circumstances. As you can see from quick email responses that my intension was in good faith to file reports if I had received them before I left the country as you can see my mother died June 19th 2015 .This is how the unforeseen circumstance fell on me.

March 16th 2015 at 2:09 PM, I received an email from TINA requesting my correct address. Exhibit A enclosed

March 16th 2015 at 2:25 PM, I responded back with a correct address. Exhibit B

March 16th 2015 at 2:28PM. I received an email with a thank you for prompt attention Exhibit C

Checked mail for the next few weeks never received any mail or email so I assumed it might take a while for the process of address change and at the same time, my mother's health was deteriorating so I was not myself. I left the country sometimes in May 2015.

As soon as I came back to my secured site ,because I process credit cards virtually I cannot open my site till I come back to my site due to PCI compliance . I filed the reports and paid the fees.

Your Honor I humbly request if you please kindly forgive my penalty graciously .And being a small business in Seattle I cannot afford to such a penalty. As I was away from my business, I suffered a lot this year .Thank you for your time and consideration

Respectfully

Nazir Karmali /Manager /ELEGANT LIMO INC SEATAC
