PAUL M. CREECH AND TRISTAN MARTI d/b/a CREECH AND SON LLC STIPULATED INITIAL ORDER DISMISSING COMPLAINT AGAINST PAUL M. CREECH; CLASSIFYING TRISTAN MARTI d/b/a CREECH AND SON LLC AS HOUSEHOLD GOODS CARRIER; ORDERING TRISTAN MARTI TO CEASE & DESIST; IMPOSING AND SUSPENDING PENALTIES ON CONDITION OF FUTURE COMPLIANCE

BACKGROUND

Synopsis. This is an Administrative Law Judge's Initial Order that is not effective unless approved or allowed to become effective as described in the notice at the end of this Order. This Initial Order is based upon a stipulation presented by the parties. This Initial Order dismisses the Complaint against Paul M. Creech. If this Initial Order becomes final, Tristan Marti d/b/a Creech and Son LLC (Tristan Marti or Company) will be assessed a financial penalty in the amount of $5,000 for two (2) violations of RCW 81.80.075(1). A $4,500 portion of the penalty will be suspended for a period of two years from the date of this order, then waived, subject to the condition that Tristan Marti refrains from further operations as a household goods carrier without first obtaining the required permit from the Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission). In addition, if this Initial Order becomes final, Tristan Marti will be classified as a household goods carrier and required to permanently cease and desist from operating as a household goods carrier without first obtaining a permit from the Commission.

1 Nature of Proceeding. The Commission initiated this special proceeding to determine if Paul M. Creech and Tristan Marti have engaged, and continue to engage, in business as a common carrier for transportation of household goods for compensation within the state of Washington without possessing the permit required for such operations.

2 Procedural History. On March 23, 2016, the Commission entered Order 01, Order Instituting Special Proceeding; Complaint Seeking to Impose Penalties; and Notice of Mandatory Appearance at Hearing, pursuant to RCW 81.04.510, initiating this docket on its own motion. The Complaint alleges that Paul M. Creech and Tristan Marti violated RCW 81.80.075(1) by:

- (1) offering on at least one occasion to transport household goods within the state of Washington
- (2) advertising household goods moving services within the state of Washington on at least one occasion without the necessary permit required for such operations. On the same date, the Commission issued a Subpoena and Subpoena Duces Tecum For Production of Documents (Subpoenas) to the Company commanding Paul M. Creech and Tristan Marti to appear before the Commission at a special proceeding scheduled to convene at 9 a.m. on April 18, 2016, in the Commission's offices at 1300 S. Evergreen Park Drive S.W., Olympia, Washington, and to bring the documents specified in the Subpoenas.

3 Hearing. On April 18, 2016, the hearing convened as scheduled in Olympia, Washington, before Administrative Law Judge Rayne Pearson.

4 Dismissal of Complaint against Paul M. Creech. At hearing, Tristan Marti and Paul M. Creech appeared and explained to Staff's satisfaction that Paul M. Creech is not involved in the operations of Creech and Son LLC, and that Tristan Marti is the sole owner. Staff moved to dismiss the Complaint against Paul M. Creech, and that motion was granted.

DISCUSSION

6 Applicable Law. RCW 81.80.010(5) defines "household goods carrier" as

<sup>1</sup> In formal proceedings, such as this, the Commission's regulatory staff participates like any other party, while the Commissioners make the decision. To assure fairness, the Commissioners and the presiding administrative law judge do not discuss the merits of the proceeding with the regulatory staff, or any other party, without giving notice and opportunity for all parties to participate. See RCW 34.05.455.

a person who transports for compensation, by motor vehicle within this state, or who advertises, solicits, offers, or enters into an agreement to transport household goods.

RCW 81.80.075 prohibits household goods carriers from operating for compensation in Washington without first obtaining the required permit from the Commission. Upon proof of unauthorized operations, RCW 81.04.510 authorizes the Commission to order the unpermitted company to cease and desist its activities. Additionally, RCW 81.04.110 authorizes the Commission to file a complaint on its own motion setting forth any act or omission by a company that violates any law, or any order or rule of the Commission.

7 RCW 81.80.075(4) subjects persons who engage in business as a household goods carrier in the state of Washington without the required permit to a penalty of up to $5,000 for each violation. In deciding the penalty amount to be imposed per violation, RCW 81.80.075(4)(b) requires the Commission to consider two factors: (a) willingness to comply with the provisions of RCW 81.80.070 and the rules governing household goods carriers contained in WAC 480-15 and (b) compliance history.

8 Stipulation Presented by Parties. At hearing, Tristan Marti agreed that he has been operating as a household goods carrier in the state of Washington without the required permit. The Company offered to transport household goods on at least one occasion and also advertised to transport household goods on at least one occasion.

9 Tristan Marti has agreed to permanently shut down and cease operations as a household goods carrier, as defined by WAC 480-15, without first obtaining a permit from the Commission.

10 Under RCW 81.04.075(4), Commission Staff is authorized to seek a penalty of up to $10,000 against the Company. Based upon the above-noted stipulation, Staff now seeks a lesser penalty of $5,000 and, on condition of the Company honoring its pledge of future compliance by permanently staying out of the industry without first obtaining a permit from the Commission, seeks to have $4,500 of the penalty suspended for two years, then waived.

11 The parties agree that the Company's currently expressed willingness to cease its unpermitted operations is a positive factor, mitigating in favor of a lowered penalty amount to be paid now. The parties also agree that the Company's compliance history is a negative factor, making a suspended penalty appropriate as a tool to ensure Tristan Marti do not re-enter the household goods moving business without first obtaining the required permit.

FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

- 12 (1) The Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission is an agency of the State of Washington vested by statute with authority to regulate persons engaged in the business of transporting household goods for compensation over public roads in Washington. The Commission has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this proceeding and over Tristan Marti pursuant to RCW 81.04.510, RCW 81.80.010, and RCW 81.80.075.
- 13 (2) On at least one occasion, Tristan Marti offered to transport household goods within the state of Washington without first having obtained a household goods carrier permit from the Commission, in violation of RCW 81.80.075.
- 14 (3) On at least one occasion, Tristan Marti advertised to transport household goods without first having obtained a household goods carrier permit from the Commission, in violation of RCW 81.80.075.
- 15 (4) The Commission should dismiss the Complaint against Paul M. Creech because he is not involved in the Company's operations.
