Re: TV-180618– Reinstating Temporary Household Goods Permit - THG065960

Dear Moseley, James:

On July 20, 2018, Moseley, James, d/b/a You Got It Movers, filed an application with the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) to reinstate its permit to provide residential household goods transportation services in the state of Washington.

The Commission grants Moseley, James's request to reinstate permit THG065960 for household goods carrier authority and approves the application in full. Permit THG065960 issued in the name of Moseley, James is enclosed, and the company may operate on a temporary basis.

The Commission will continue to evaluate whether Moseley, James qualifies for permanent authority. To qualify for permanent authority, your company must satisfy the following requirements:

1. Operate for at least six months.
2. Personnel responsible for company management and operations must attend one of the following free Commission-sponsored training classes to learn about consumer protection rules, safety regulations and industry-wide tariff provisions that apply to your business. You should consider registering soon since there is a limited number of registrations accepted for each class. Sign up by contacting Jason Hoxit at jason.hoxit@utc.wa.gov or 360-664-1320.
  - Wednesday, August 15 at UTC Headquarters in Olympia
  - Wednesday, November 7 at UTC Headquarters in Olympia.

Failure to attend the training may result in denial of your permanent authority.

3. Allow the Commission to review your business operations and records. Commission staff will review records and inspect vehicle(s), and you must receive a satisfactory safety rating as a result of that review.
4. Complete a criminal background check on each person Moseley, James employs or intends to employ. The Commission will not grant permanent authority if any company employee has been convicted of any crime within the past five years involving theft, burglary, assault, sexual misconduct, identity theft, fraud, false statements, or the manufacture, sale, or distribution of a controlled substance. Even if a conviction for any of these offenses is more than five years old, the Commission will not grant permanent authority if it determines that the nature or extent of the crime(s) will likely interfere with the proper operation of a household goods moving company.
5. Pay any outstanding monetary penalty or fee owed to the Commission.
6. Resolve all consumer complaints pending with the Commission.

Moseley, James must continue to comply with state laws, Commission rules, and the provisions of Tariff 15-C. Failure to do so will result in Commission enforcement action, up to and including revocation of the company's permit.
