13 The witnesses listed above fall into two general categories. The first are witnesses who 14 represent specific economic development, business or political interests who will address the 15 background and role of passenger-only ferries in the transportation planning infrastructure and 16 economic development of the region, particularly in Kitsap County and who may also provide 17 personal insights into the value of a Seattle/Kingston passenger-only ferry service.

18 The other general group of witness types noted above are those who represent typical 19 commuter passengers who will address the individual benefits and convenience of the proposed 20 passenger-only ferry service between Kingston and Seattle presented by this Application.

21 Applicant expressly reserves the right to call any additional witnesses at the hearing on 22 Application B-079273 for clarification or rebuttal should that be required and as permitted by 23 this Commission.
