Re: TV-210535-TV-210812; Washington Movers Conference Letter Requesting Extension of Time

Dear Ms. Maxwell:

On behalf of the Washington Movers Conference as newly-retained counsel, this is to request a minimum 60-day extension of time from the current deadline of August 5, 2022 contained in the July 7, 2022 Notice to Stakeholders to comment on the numerous issues it appears are raised in the proceeding. As newcomer representatives in this proceeding, we would like to consult closely with the client, Commission staff and potentially other stakeholders particularly on how industry data might be produced in this docket in the absence of confidentiality protections in the statute as well as gaining necessary background on some of the complexities of the regulatory issues posed by these filings.

Affording parties significant additional time will certainly provide a more meaningful record upon which the Commission may ultimately act and in our view, is fully consistent with the public interest in further informing the record to be developed.

Yours truly,

WILLIAMS, KASTNER & GIBBS PLLC
