RE: Penalty Assessment TV-081101

Dear Mr. Warner:

On June 30, 2008, the Utilities and Transportation Commission (commission) issued a Notice of Penalties to Bumblebee Moving North, Inc. (Bumblebee Moving), in the amount of $300 for violation of Washington Administrative Code (WAC) 480-15-480 (copy enclosed). WAC 480-15-480 requires household goods carriers to furnish annual reports and pay regulatory fees to the commission no later than May 1 of each year. The penalty assessment required Bumblebee Moving to either pay the penalty or ask for mitigation within 15 days.

On September 16, 2008, the commission sent Bumblebee Moving a letter informing it the penalty assessment was outstanding. Payment was required by September 16, 2008, or the commission would consider additional sanctions and would refer the matter to the Office of the Attorney General for collection.

This is your final opportunity to respond. If you do not respond by December 1, 2008, you may incur additional penalties, and the commission may pursue its enforcement options in superior court.

If you have any questions about this letter or about the company's obligations under commission rules, you may contact me at (360) 664-1193, or Sheri Hoyt, Compliance Investigator, at (360) 664-1149.

Sincerely,

Sally Brown
Assistant Attorney General

WASHINGTON UTILITIES AND TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION

NOTICE OF PENALTIES INCURRED AND DUE FOR VIOLATIONS OF LAWS AND RULES

PENALTY ASSESSMENT: TV-081101
PENALTY AMOUNT: $300

Bumblebee Moving North, Inc.
17903 State Route 9, Suite B
Snohomish, Washington 98296

The Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) believes that you have committed a violation of Washington Administrative Code 480-15-480 which requires household goods carriers to file annual reports with the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) by May 1 each year. You are classified as such a company. Commission records show that you did not make the filing by the required date of May 1, 2008. Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 81.04.405 allows penalties of $100 for every such violation. Each and every such violation shall be a separate and distinct offense and, in the case of a continuing violation, every day's continuance shall be and be deemed to be a separate and distinct violation.

As a result, the Commission hereby notifies you that it has assessed penalties against you in the amount $300, as follows:

On February 29, 2008, the Commission mailed 2007 Annual Report forms and 2008 Regulatory Fee packets to household goods carriers registered with it. A letter from Executive Secretary Carole Washburn instructed companies to file annual reports and pay regulatory fees by May 1, 2008. Further, the letter stated failure to file the annual report by May 1 could result in a penalty.

On April 1, 2008, the Commission mailed a notice to all household goods carriers reminding them that 2007 annual reports and 2008 regulatory fees were due by May 1, 2008.

On May 15, 2008, the commission sent letters to those companies that had not yet filed their reports. The letter, signed by Carole Washburn, gave an extension to companies to file their reports by May 30, 2008. In the letter, Ms. Washburn stated the Commission would not seek a fine or move to revoke the registration of any company with a report received by the Commission postmarked no later than May 30.

As of June 12, 2008, Bumblebee Moving North, Inc., failed to file the 2007 annual report.

Bumblebee Moving North, Inc., also failed to file its 2005 and 2006 annual reports timely and, as a result, previously received a $100 penalty assessment in 2006 and a $200 penalty assessment in 2007. This penalty amount of $300 is for three consecutive years of non-compliance.

This information, if proved at a hearing and not rebutted or explained, is sufficient to support the penalty assessment.

Your penalty is due and payable now. If you believe the violation did not occur, you may request a hearing to contest the penalty assessment. If there is a reason for the violation that you think should excuse you from the penalty, you may ask for mitigation (reduction) of this penalty. See RCW 81.04.405.

You have the right to present your request for review or mitigation at a hearing, but you are not required to do so. If you do, the Commission will review the evidence supporting your request in an informal hearing, called a Brief Adjudicative Proceeding, before an administrative law judge. The administrative law judge will consider your plea and notify you of his or her decision.

You must act within 15 days after receiving this notice to do one of the following:

- Pay the amount due.
- Request a hearing to contest the occurrence of the violations.
- Request mitigation to contest the amount of the penalty.

Please indicate your selection on the enclosed form and send it to the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission, Post Office Box 47250, Olympia, Washington 98504-7250, within FIFTEEN (15) days after you receive this notice.

If you do not act within 15 days, the Commission may refer this matter to the Office of the Attorney General for collection. The Commission may then sue you to collect the penalty.

DATED at Olympia, Washington, and effective June 25, 2008.
