AT&T Communications of the Pacific Northwest, Inc.,)	ORDER 01
)
For Assignment of Telephone Numbering Resources)	ORDER ASSIGNING NUMBERING RESOURCES
.....)

BACKGROUND

- 1 AT&T Communications of the Pacific Northwest, Inc., (AT&T or Company) requested on February 22, 2010, that the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) overturn the Number Pooling Administrator’s decision to withhold numbering resources and direct the Number Pooling Administrator to provide three block(s) of 1,000 numbers in the 425 numbering plan area (NPA), Halls Lake rate center. The purpose of the request is to meet the requirements of a customer requesting 3,000 sequential numbers for its internal dialing plan. This request is in the public interest to support the growth of Comcast, a company serving the community of interest.

- 2 Telephone companies commonly hold and manage a reasonable inventory of telephone numbers in the areas where they provide service. When more numbers are needed by a company, it may request them from the Number Pooling Administrator. The Number Pooling Administrator withholds telephone numbers if the company’s inventory is sufficient for the next six months and there is a shortage of numbers in the affected area code.

- 3 The Number Pooling Administrator’s Web site reports an inventory of 45 block(s) of 1,000 numbers in the Halls Lake rate center, and the North American Numbering Plan Administrator’s (NANPA’s) Web site reports that NPA 425 is forecasted to exhaust in the 3rd quarter of 2031. The Company’s inventory is deemed sufficient for the next six months. AT&T provided the Commission with a detailed inventory for number resources and proof of utilization¹ in the rate center. AT&T will adhere to the requirement to review numbering resources and comply with the requirements of the NANPA and the Pooling Administrator regarding the return of unused numbers.

¹Third Report and Order, FCC 01-362, CC Dockets 96-98 and 99-200, paras. 52-56.

4 The Federal Communications Commission (FCC) issued an order establishing a “safety valve” allowing companies that do not meet the utilization threshold in a given rate center to obtain additional numbering resources apart from the general waiver process.² Specifically, the FCC granted to state Commissions the authority to direct the Number Pooling Administrator to release a block of numbers to a company to satisfy a specific customer request that cannot be met with the company’s current inventory³ provided the company documents the customer request and submits current proof of utilization.

FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

- 5 (1) The Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission is an agency of the State of Washington vested by statute with the authority to regulate the rates, rules, regulations, practices, accounts, securities, transfers of property and affiliated interests of public service companies, including telecommunications companies. RCW 80.01.040, RCW 80.04, RCW 80.08, RCW 80.12, RCW 80.16 and RCW 80.36.
- 6 (2) AT&T is a telecommunications company and a public service company subject to Commission jurisdiction.
- 7 (3) The Telecommunications Act of 1996 (the Act) allows the FCC to establish rules to implement the Act and delegate authority to state Commissions.
- 8 (4) The FCC has created a “safety valve” mechanism within the framework of number resource management and delegated to the Commission authority to grant requests by carriers that receive a specific customer request for numbering resources that exceeds their available inventory. The FCC has also given states some flexibility to direct the Number Pooling Administrator to assign additional numbering resources to carriers that have demonstrated a verifiable need for additional numbering resources.⁴

³ Id. ¶ 64.

⁴ Id. ¶ 61.

- 9 (5) The Commission has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to RCW 80.36.610, which authorizes the Commission to take actions necessary to implement the Act.
- 10 (6) Normally, additional numbering resources are granted only when existing resources are forecasted to exhaust within six months.⁵
- 11 (7) The Number Pooling Administrator's Web site reports an inventory of 45 blocks of 1,000 numbers in the Halls Lake rate center, and the North American Numbering Plan Administrator's (NANPA's) Web site reports that NPA 425 is forecasted to exhaust in the 3rd quarter of 2031.
- 12 (9) The purpose of the request is to meet the requirements of a customer requesting 3,000 sequential numbers for its internal dialing plan. This request is in the public interest to support the growth of Comcast, a company serving the community of interest.
- 13 (10) This matter came before the Commission at its regularly scheduled meeting on March 11, 2010.

ORDER

THE COMMISSION ORDERS:

- 14 (1) The Number Pooling Administrator, to release three block(s) of 1,000 numbers, specifically in the 425 NPA, Halls Lake rate center to AT&T Communications of the Pacific Northwest, Inc.
- 15 (2) The Commission retains jurisdiction over this matter to take such future actions as may be appropriate.

The Commissioners, having determined this Order to be consistent with the public interest, directed the Secretary to enter this Order.
