RE: Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission v. Execuvan Rental LLC

Commission Staff's Response to Application for Mitigation of Penalties TE-141062

Dear Mr. King:

On May 27, 2014, the Utilities and Transportation Commission issued a $1,000 Penalty Assessment in Docket TE-141062 against Execuvan Rental, LLC for 10 violations of Washington Administrative Code (WAC) 480-30-071, which requires charter and excursion carriers to furnish annual reports to the commission no later than May 1 each year.¹

On June 12, 2014, Execuvan Rental, LLC wrote the commission requesting mitigation of penalties (Mitigation Request).² In its Mitigation Request, Execuvan Rental LLC does not dispute that the violation occurred. The company provided a statement as to the reasons for the request being the changes to the ownership of the company, minimal operations due to the dissolving of the partnership, a change of address not being submitted to the commission by the vacating partner and thus the annual report mailing not being received by the remaining active partner.

It is the company's responsibility to ensure that the regulatory fee is paid and the annual report is filed by the May 1 deadline. On February 28, 2014, Annual Report packets were mailed to all regulated charter and excursion companies. The instructions for annual report completion page of the annual report informed the regulated company that it must complete the annual report form, pay the regulatory fees, and return the materials by May 1, 2014, to avoid enforcement action.

²See attachment B for a copy of Execuvan Rental's Mitigation Request received on June 12, 2014

On May 20, 2014, Execuvan Rental filed an incomplete 2013 annual report. The required information, payment for regulatory fees and late payment penalties were received by the commission on June 9, 2014. The company has been active since September 25, 2013. No previous violations of WAC 480-30-071 are on commission record. The UTC also recently adopted new rules requiring the annual report to be filed by May 1 while the regulatory fees remained due on December 31. Despite the commission communication regarding these filing changes to all regulated charter and excursion companies, commission staff supports the company's request for mitigation. Staff recommends a reduced penalty assessment of $200.

If you have any questions regarding this recommendation, please contact Amy Andrews, Regulatory Analyst, at (360) 664-1157, or aandrews@utc.wa.gov.

Sincerely,

Sondra Walsh, Director
Administrative Services

NOTICE OF PENALTIES INCURRED AND DUE FOR VIOLATIONS OF LAWS AND RULES

PENALTY ASSESSMENT: TE-141062
PENALTY AMOUNT: $1,000

Execuvan Rental LLC
10538 NE 24th Street
Bellevue, WA 98004

According to Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) records, you have violated Washington Administrative Code (WAC) 480-30-071, which requires charter and excursion carriers to file their annual reports. You did not file an annual report by May 1, 2014.

Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 81.04.080 authorizes the Commission to assess penalties of $100 for violations of Commission rules. Each violation is a separate and distinct offense and, in the case of a continuing violation, every day's continuance is a separate and distinct violation. The Commission interprets noncompliance with WAC 480-30-071 beyond May 1 as a continuing violation, and assesses penalties of $100 for each day a company fails to file its report after that date.

As a result, the Commission has assessed penalties against you in the amount of $1,000 on the following basis:

On February 28, 2014, the Commission mailed the 2013 annual report forms and the 2014 regulatory fee packets to all charter and excursion carriers registered in Washington. The instructions page for the annual report form instructed these companies to file annual reports by May 1, 2014. The instructions page also stated that failure to file the annual report by May 1 would result in penalties. The deadline for requesting an extension to file your annual report was April 17. You did not request an extension.

As of May 15, 2014, Execuvan Rental LLC has not filed its 2013 annual report or paid its 2014 regulatory fee. May 15 is 10 business days from May 1, resulting in a total penalty of $1,000.

Your penalty is due and payable now. If you believe the violation did not occur, you may request a hearing to contest the penalty assessment. The Commission will grant that request only if material issues of law or fact require consideration of evidence and resolution in a hearing. A request for a hearing must include a written statement of the reasons supporting that request. Failure to provide such a statement will result in denial of the request. If there is a reason for the violation that you think should excuse or reduce the penalty, you may ask for mitigation (reduction) of this penalty through evidence presented at a hearing or in writing. A request for mitigation must include a written statement of the reasons supporting that request. Failure to provide such a statement will result in denial of the request. See RCW 81.04.405.

If you properly present your request for a hearing and the Commission grants that request, the Commission will review the evidence supporting your dispute of the violation or application for mitigation in a Brief Adjudicative Proceeding, before an administrative law judge. The administrative law judge will consider the evidence and will notify you of his or her decision.

You must act within 15 days after receiving this notice to do one of the following:

- Pay the amount due.
- Request a hearing to contest the occurrence of the violations.
- Request mitigation to contest the amount of the penalty.

Please indicate your selection on the enclosed form and send it to the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission, Post Office Box 47250, Olympia, Washington 98504-7250, within FIFTEEN (15) days after you receive this notice.

If you do not act within 15 days, the Commission may refer this matter to the Office of the Attorney General for collection, which may file suit in state court to collect the penalty. The Commission may also initiate proceedings under WAC 480-30-171 to cancel your certificate to operate as a charter and excursion carrier in Washington.

DATED at Olympia, Washington, and effective May 23, 2014.

GREGORY J. KOPTA
Administrative Law Judge

Dear Judge:
June09/2014

June 09/2014

My name is John Chi the owner of Execuvan Rental LLC. Our company was established since last June and it was 2 owners involved: May Zhang and me at that time.

For some reasons May walked away after last October and I have to carry on the company by my self. I was hassling bustling a little bit and put our company as no business actions for about 3 months just because I was thing if it worth to keep on it going and I finally decided to keep on going and restart the company since this February.

When we first start the company we put May Zhang 's address as company mailing address and she did not send the notice to change the address after she left and that cost I never got the notice from WUTC about the annual report.

I finally call the WCTC and asked about it they sent me the forms by e-mail and I felt out and mail it within 5 working days since there late already.

Now we change the mailing address as correct now. We did get the penalty of the later payment and please be kindly reconsideration the fact and make kindly fare desertions. We are highly appreciated your kindly considerations as we always do.

If you have any questions please feel free to contact with us at: 206-779-9998 we are highly appreciated your business support and understandings.

Yours Truly

John Chi
