WASH. UT. & TP. COMM

The Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) believes that you have violated Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 19.122.030(1)(a) by failing to request a dig ticket prior to performing an excavation and by not marking the boundary of the excavation area in white paint. The Commission also believes that you have violated RCW 19.122.050 by failing to report damage that occurred to a City of Lacey sanitary sewer force main as a result of the excavation.

RCW 19.122.070(1) states, in part, that violation of any provision of the chapter is subject to a civil penalty of not more than one thousand dollars for an initial violation and not more than five thousand dollars for each subsequent violation within a three-year period.

The Commission reviewed findings and recommendations made by the Washington State Dig Law Safety Committee (Safety Committee) and hereby notifies you that it is assessing a penalty against you in the amount of $1,000 on the following grounds:

On Jan. 9, 2015, Steve Ruhnke Construction, Inc., (Ruhnke Construction) performed an excavation as part of a utility installation. Prior to beginning work, Ruhnke Construction failed to request a dig ticket from a one-number locator service. During the excavation, Ruhnke Construction struck and damaged a City of Lacey sanitary sewer force main and failed to report the damage to the National Ticket Management System Washington One Call (One Call) Center or to the City of Lacey, as required under RCW 19.122.053.

On Jan. 9, 2015, the City of Lacey received information from a customer regarding a sewer leak and the City of Lacey immediately responded to the leak report. City of Lacey then filed a complaint with the Safety Committee on Jan. 9, 2015. The complainant alleged that Ruhnke Construction failed to request a dig ticket and caused an emergency condition of a sewer leak when a City of Lacey sanitary sewer force main was damaged.

The Safety Committee found that Ruhnke Construction violated RCW 19.122.030(1)(a) by failing to request a dig ticket prior to performing excavation and by not marking the boundary of the excavation area in white paint. The Safety Committee also found that Ruhnke Construction violated RCW 19.122.050 by failing to report the damage to the sanitary sewer force main to the One Call Center or the City of Lacey. The Safety Committee recommended that the Commission assess a $1,000 penalty for this violation, with a stipulation that $800 be deferred if Ruhnke Construction agrees to National Utility Contractor's Association (NUCA) "Dig Safe" Training for the company's five superintendents/field representatives, two locate staff members, and a representative of the company's ownership within 90 days of this decision. The Safety Committee further recommended that the $800 deferred portion of the penalty become due and payable if Ruhnke Construction either fails to attend the training or commits a further violation of RCW 19.122 within a 12-month period from the date of this Penalty Assessment.

Pursuant to RCW 19.122.150(3), the Commission has considered the Safety Committee's determination and partially adopts its recommendation. The Commission believes these are serious offenses and warrant the maximum penalty, as the Safety Committee recommends. Therefore, the Commission assesses a penalty of $1,000 for the violations. The Commission's ultimate objective, however, is to ensure compliance with the regulations it enforces, and thus the Commission will waive the penalty in its entirety for these violations on the conditions that (1) Ruhnke Construction's five superintendents/field representatives, two locate staff, and a representative of company ownership attend "Dig Safe" training, provided through the NUCA, within 90 days of the date of this Penalty Assessment; and (2) Ruhnke Construction commits no further violations of RCW 19.122 within the next 12 months.

The information the Safety Committee provided to the Commission, if proved at a hearing and not rebutted or explained, is sufficient to support the penalty assessment.

Your penalty is due and payable now. If you believe the violations did not occur, you may deny committing the violation and contest the penalty assessment through evidence presented at a hearing or in writing. The Commission will grant a request for hearing only if material issues of law or fact concerning the violation require consideration of evidence and resolution in a hearing. Any contest of the penalty assessment must include a written statement of the reasons supporting that contest. Failure to provide such a statement will result in denial of the contest.

If there is a reason for the violation that you think should excuse you from the penalty, you may ask for mitigation (reduction) of this penalty through evidence presented at a hearing or in writing. The Commission will grant a request for hearing only if material issues of law or fact require consideration of evidence and resolution in a hearing. Any request for mitigation must include a written statement of the reasons supporting that request. Failure to provide such a statement will result in denial of the request.

RCW 9A.72.020:

“Perjury in the first degree. (1) A person is guilty of perjury in the first degree if in any official proceeding he makes a materially false statement which he knows to be false under an oath required or authorized by law. (2) Knowledge of the materiality of the statement is not an element of this crime, and the actor’s mistaken belief that his statement was not material is not a defense to a prosecution under this section. (3) Perjury in the first degree is a class B felony.”
