1. I am employed by the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) as a Compliance Investigator in the Consumer Protection Section. As a Compliance Investigator, my responsibilities include conducting investigations regarding the business practices of regulated utility and transportation companies. As part of those duties, I investigate household goods carriers that may be operating without the required Commission permit.

On April 20, 2018, the Commission cancelled the Company's permit for failure to provide insurance in Docket TV-180337. To date, the Company has not reapplied for a permit.<sup>2</sup>
4. The Cancellation of Provisional Household Goods Permit letter issued by the Commission specifically states that, "You must immediately CEASE all operations associated with this permit. If you advertise or operate as a household goods mover without a valid permit, the commission may take enforcement action against you."<sup>3</sup>
5. On June 8, 2018, I visited You Got It Movers' website (<http://yougotitmovers.com>)<sup>4</sup> and found advertisements offering to perform local moves, a telephone number of (425) 268-2589, and a location of 1824 Walnut Street, Everett, WA 98201.
