ADDENDUM NOTICE OF TECHNICAL WORKSHOP
(Set for June 8, 2020, at 1:30 p.m.)

RE: Demand Response Potential and Target Setting, Dockets UE-190698 (Electric IRP rulemaking) and UE-191023 (Clean Energy Implementation Plan rulemaking)

WEBINAR INSTRUCTIONS

This workshop will be conducted virtually. Although parties may participate by telephone, participation by computer will make it easier to facilitate the discussion.

Join by phone: (360) 407-3810, conference ID 648699

Presentation materials will be posted to Dockets UE-191023 and UE-190698 in advance of the workshop.

AGENDA

- 1:30 Welcome and introduction
- 1:40 Potential for Load Flexibility – The Brattle Group
- 2:55 Ten minute break
- 3:05 DR insights for the northwest – Pacific Northwest National Laboratory
- 4:00 Facilitated discussion on DR potential and CEIP targets

Questions will be focused on new requirements to:

Identify the potential cost-effective demand response and load management programs that may be acquired in the integrated resource plan.

1. Which values of demand response are utilities currently incorporating into the IRP to identify cost-effective demand response?
2. What additional values need to be included to ensure all utility system costs and symmetrical nonutility impacts are accounted for?
3. Which values can be identified directly within the IRP modeling process and which need to be included in the demand response potential assessment?
4. What type of guidance around demand response potential assessments would be useful?

Propose specific targets that pursue all cost-effective, reliable, and feasible demand response in the Clean Energy Implementation Plan.

1. Should DR targets in the CEIP be the same as the potential in the IRP? How should they be different?
2. How should DR pilots be treated in CEIP targets?
3. What type of guidance around setting demand response CEIP targets would be useful?

4:45 Next steps
