3           The administrative rules at issue are WAC § 480-07-340, -355.

4           Microsoft has a substantial interest in PSE’s 2024 general rate case (“GRC”), which the Company filed on February 15, 2024.<sup>1</sup> Microsoft currently takes delivery service from PSE pursuant to a special contract approved in Docket No. UE-161123. In this GRC, PSE is proposing an approximate 73% increase to Microsoft’s delivery rates in 2025 and another increase of approximately 5% in 2026.<sup>2</sup> Accordingly, Microsoft has a direct and substantial interest in this proceeding that will not be adequately represented by any other party and may be affected by any Commission decision made in connection with this proceeding.

5           Microsoft’s intervention in this proceeding will assist the Commission in determining the fair and reasonable allocation of costs to Microsoft and will not unreasonably broaden the issues, burden the record, or delay this proceeding. Thus, it is in the public interest to allow Microsoft to intervene in this proceeding.

6           WHEREFORE, Microsoft respectfully petitions the Commission for leave to intervene in this proceeding.

<sup>1</sup> PSE filed replacement versions of its initial testimony on March 1, 2024, to reflect non-substantive changes, and additionally filed revised testimony and exhibits on March 4, 2024.

Dated this 11th day of March, 2024.

Respectfully submitted,

DAVISON VAN CLEVE, P.C.
