

Judge Wallis:

I'm afraid the proposal for a December 4 prehearing brief is not workable for Public Counsel as a practical matter. The need to review the rebuttal testimony due on the 28th, discovery, preparation of cross exam and cross exhibits in the same week mean that we would not feasibly be able to file a prehearing brief on December 4.