Docket Ref: date filed Dec. 13, 2004 Serna's Relocation Systems, Inc.

Dear Commission,

My company is in protest of the above application for household goods and general commodities application in the State of Washington. The address above is also the address for Reliance Moving and Storage, Mayflower Transit, of which we understand was recently sold to another party.

This address also housed the old moving company called Anacortes Van and Storage, which was originally purchased by Conrad Mayflower, in Chehalis, Washington. Conrad sold their company, to Erik Bowman of Reliance Moving and Storage. We are not sure if this is still a viable permitted company, but do not understand why there is a need for another moving and storage company at this location, seeking household goods authority.

Anacortes is a small town, and at this stage in development and growth, is limited to future land use, due to the fact it is an Island, and future moving due to its population.

Therefore, our company is protesting this application and worth to the community.

Sincerely,

Pat Meyer
Secretary/Treasurer
