SCHEDULE T
CUSTOMER-OWNED
NATURAL GAS TRANSPORTATION SERVICE

PREREQUISITES TO SERVICE:

Customers must first meet all of the terms and conditions of their existing Service Agreement.

Customers must have the capability to receive notices via automatic electronic means acceptable by the Company. Customers must provide active and continuous telephone service to all meters to be used for billing purposes. The Company may require the installation of telemetry equipment at the Customer's Premise, subject to charges set forth in SCHEDULE 10.

Customers must have secured the purchase and delivery of gas supplies from an Authorized Supplier/Agent) of their choosing.

SERVICE ELECTION:

A Sales Service Customer that has met all of the terms and conditions of Customer's existing Service Agreement may elect to transfer from Sales Service to Transportation Service by giving not less than one (1) billing months advance written notice to Company. Customer's notice shall specify the exact date that the Transportation Service election is to be effective.

A Transportation Service Customer that has met all of the terms and conditions of Customer's existing Service Agreement may elect to transfer to Sales Service by giving not less than one (1) billing month's advance written notice to Company. Customer's service election change will be allowed provided that: (a) the Company determines, in its sole judgment, that adequate supply and capacity exists to accommodate Customer's transfer request; and (b) the Customer will pay the Company for any incremental gas supply and capacity costs incurred by the Company to accommodate such Customer's change in service.

Limited Exception for Transfers from Transportation Service to Sales Service. Customers that submitted an election to take Sales Service between August 1, 2005 and October 26, 2005 will have a one-time opportunity to withdraw such election by submitting a Withdrawal of Election form to Company no later than 5:00 p.m. on October 26, 2005. A Customer that chooses to withdraw its election shall pay the Company for (a) any Sales Service taken under the applicable Rate Schedule between the effective date of election to transfer to Sales Service and the effective date of the withdrawal of the election; and (b) any other incremental costs incurred by the Company in connection with securing gas supplies to serve such Customer for the duration of Customer's Sales Service election. The effective date of the transfer back to Transportation Service will be November 1, 2005. Customers that elect to withdraw their Sales Service election and return to Transportation Service will not be allowed to change their service election until all of the terms and conditions of their Transportation Service rate schedule or special contract are first met.
