MEMORANDUM

- 1 Penalty. On August 1, 2012, the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) assessed a penalty of $2,100 against Tuebor, Inc. (Tuebor), for violations of Washington Administrative Code (WAC) 480-120-382. This rule requires competitively classified telecommunications companies to file annual reports with the Commission by May 1 each year. Tuebor failed to file an annual report.

- 2 Tuebor, upon receiving the Commission’s penalty assessment, informed the Commission in writing that the company ceased offering service in Washington in November 2010, and no longer intends to retain authority to do so. Tuebor asks that its authority be cancelled.

- 3 Commission Staff Support for Waiver. Commission Staff filed a Response to Tuebor’s letter on September 28, 2012. Staff states that companies that cease business operations during the prior year are not required to file an annual report or pay a regulatory fee even if they fail to inform the Commission of this fact. Tuebor apparently became inactive in Washington in November 2010. Therefore, Staff says, the company is not subject to any penalties for failure to file an annual report.

- 4 Commission Determination. The Commission determines that it should rescind the penalty assessed against Tuebor. There is no apparent basis for penalizing the company.

ORDER

THE COMMISSION ORDERS THAT:

- 5 (1) The penalty of $2,100 assessed against Tuebor, Inc., is rescinded.
- 6 (2) The Commission delegates to its Secretary authority to enter this Order on behalf of the Commissioners under WAC 480-07-904(1)(h).

DATED at Olympia, Washington, and effective October 30, 2012.
