RE: Annual Complaint Report of Cricket, Docket UT-111534

On March 13, 2014, AT&T Inc. acquired Leap Wireless International, Inc. (Leap) and its company Cricket Communications, Inc. (Cricket). As a result of the acquisition, Cricket is now a wholly owned subsidiary of AT&T Inc.

The Commission's order designating Cricket as an eligible telecommunications carrier ("ETC") for the purpose of receiving federal Low Income Support (Lifeline)<sup>1</sup> requires Cricket to file with the Commission, by March 31 of each year, a report of the number of complaints that it received from Washington Lifeline customers regarding Lifeline service during the prior calendar year. The report is to include complaints filed with Cricket, the Commission's Consumer Protection and Communications Section, the Washington State Office of the Attorney General, and the Federal Communications Commission, categorized by the nature of the complaints. In 2013, Cricket received zero complaints.

I apologize that this report is being filed one day late, but I wanted to ensure the accuracy of the data provided in this report.

Please contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,
