So I will simply go down our list of parties here. Let's start with the Company. Is there anything further that we should be aware of for considering the schedule? MS. CARSON: Yes. Thank you, Your Honor. Well, first of all, Mr. Zakai emailed me just a few minutes ago and reminded me that there were a few dates that	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	reply briefs are very important. Staff's schedule does not provide the opportunity for a reply brief. Staff has indicated that reply briefs aren't important to them, but PSE as the party with the burden of proof believes that they are very important. We think that, you know, there are often legal issues that can get muddled in initial briefs, and a short reply brief gives parties the opportunity to clarify those issues for the Commission and to avoid, you know, motions for clarification, petitions for reconsideration, judicial review. So I think it's worth it to schedule that in there. And PSE is the party with the burden of proof, you know, and from an evidentiary perspective, we have the opportunity for rebuttal testimony, and likewise, we think it's important to have the opportunity to respond to legal issues raised by other parties. And not to mention, you know, that there are 10-plus parties that PSE must respond to in briefs, which is different from the other parties who are primarily
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	parties here in a minute. I do want to note that it does appear that October 29th and 30th would not work for the Commission. It does appear that Commissioner Rendahl is at a CAISO meeting on that date. I will — I can look into that further, though. So I do plan to take both of these schedules, these proposed schedules, under advisement. I don't necessarily plan on deciding this at this moment, but I did want to allow for the parties to raise any considerations that we should be aware of and for the other parties, besides the Company and Staff, to indicate their support for one schedule versus the other or any other concerns they want to raise. And so if we can find dates at the end of October, or perhaps the beginning of November that do work for everybody, that would be our preference. 20	Microsoft.	20	landed on the 26th because that next week is going to be
21	MR. PEPPLE: Microsoft also does not have a position and	21	problematic from my end. I mean, I think like you know,
22	is fine with either.	22	if that's a need for The Energy Project, we can I mean,
23	THE COURT: All right.	23	hopefully Microsoft's testimony will be somewhat limited,
24	So we'll hear from the attorney for Front and Centered,	24	and so we might be able to get it done, you know, that
25	Northwest Energy Coalition, and Sierra Club.	25	Friday before anyway. But, you know, if there's
	Page 22		Page 24
1	MR. HASSELMAN: Yeah. Hi. Jan Hasselman for the joint	1	flexibility, it would be better to keep it at the 26th.

3	Two of the three JEA parties are in the Avista proceeding as	3	be a little better. I guess the problem with the 30th and
4	well. If Your Honor is inclined to be splitting the baby, I	4	the 31st are that I'll be out of the office at all-day BPA
5	think the date that is of concern to us is the later date	5	meetings, and so having that be a filing day is a little
6	for the testimony that we would submit. There's like a	6	tricky as well, just giving some other staffing changes that
7	two-week difference. And that's probably the one that's	7	we're dealing with. So, you know, if we could yeah.

9	the Commission sets. Thank you.	9	MR. ZAKAI: Yeah. I think the 29th would be good. As I
10	THE COURT: All right. Thank you. So the deadline that	10	mentioned, my main concern was just not having that the same week as a lot of other stuff going on. So if you're open to
11	concerned you would be are you referring to PSE's	11 12
12	proposed deadline for response testimony? MR HASSELMAN: No. This would be a voc. Youh that's	13	the 29th and other parties are amenable, I think that sounds
13	MR. HASSELMAN: No. This would be yes. Yeah, that's right. I think they proposed July 26th. The Staff proposed	14	good. (Back on the record)
14 15	August 9th, if I recall correctly.	15	(Back on the record) THE COURT: Recording? All right. Thank you.
16	THE COURT: All right. Thank you.	16	Good morning, everyone. Let's be back on the record. As
17	Let's take a short recess so that the parties,	17	I understand, the parties have finished their discussion.
18	particularly The Energy Project and AWEC, can discuss with	18	So would counsel for the Company like to relay the outcome
19	PSE and work out the conflicts to the proposed schedule, if	19	of that?
20	that sounds amenable to everyone. So I will leave the call,	20	MS. CARSON: Certainly. So, yeah, we did talk about three
21	and we'll stop recording the call. And I would ask that	21	different dates that are on PSE's proposed schedule, and we
22	Lisa Gafken or another attorney for either Public Counsel or	22	came to agreement on slightly revised dates. So the first
23	Staff emails me or sends me a Teams message to let me know	23	is the response testimony date for Staff, Public Counsel,
24	when to rejoin.	24	and intervenors. It's currently scheduled for July 26th,
25	Does that work for everyone? Any concerns?	25	and it would be changed to July 29th.

I mean, that is a longer period of time between those two deadlines, but let me just double-check really quickly. MS. MOSER: Your Honor, if I may, I just note that that's also the date that exhibit lists, cross-exam exhibits, and witness lists are due in the Avista rate case, and that is a lot of filing to do testimony in those on one day. So I'm just curious if the 16th was maybe a hard-and-fast date or if you were just looking for something generally earlier. THE COURT: Approximately one week earlier, I think, would be ideal if we're considering this. It doesn't I think that's a good point to raise, though. It could be the following day. It could be a business day beforehand. MS. GAFKEN: I think we were trying to avoid the Avista deadline in the earlier week. I didn't find any specific conflicts in terms of Staff being out, but I do think that	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	MS. GAFKEN: Okay. Paper copies are administratively burdensome. It does shorten the timeline that parties have to produce testimony and exhibits, which is why I say that it's related to the discussions that we've been having, because, you know, we've been talking about trying to manage all of the things that are before the parties and the Commission. I am cognizant that the Commission has ordered paper copies in recent dockets, but I also want to note that we've operated for several years working with only electronic copies. It really does shorten the amount of time that witnesses have to develop their testimony and exhibits, and it also shortens the time available to our administrative staff to proofread and process the filing. There's a lot of coordination that goes into preparing paper docket paper copies. And I have to say that I'm old enough to remember the days when we had to provide 25 copies, and so I'm very thankful that we're not in those days anymore. But even at five copies, it does impose a significant administrative burden on our staff, especially with cases as large as this one. So we would request that the Commission not require parties to file paper copies in these dockets. Thank you.
