

[Service Date September 28, 2010]

September 28, 2010

NOTICE OF EXTENSION TO ENTER FINAL ORDER

RE: Sandy Judd and Tara Herivel, Complainants, v. AT&T Communications of the Pacific Northwest, Inc., and T-Netix, Inc., Docket UT-042022

TO PARTIES OF RECORD:

On April 21, 2010, the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) entered “Order 23—Initial Order Denying in Part AT&T’s Amended Motion for Summary Determination and Granting T-Netix’s Motion and Amended Motion for Summary Determination” in the above matter.

On May 11, 2010, AT&T Communications of the Pacific Northwest (AT&T) filed with the Commission a petition for administrative review.

On May 21, 2010, counsel for the complainants, Sandy Judd and Tara Herivel, filed with the Commission its answer to AT&T’s petition for administrative review.

RCW 34.05.461(8)(a) states that a final order shall be served in writing within ninety days after conclusion of the hearing or after submission of memos, briefs, or proposed findings unless the period is extended for good cause.

NOTICE IS GIVEN that due to the demands of other business and the transition of the Commission’s Administrative Law Division to a new Director, the Commission finds good cause to extend the time beyond the ninety days for entering its final order in this docket.

Sincerely,

GREGORY J. KOPTA
Administrative Law Judge