Re: UW-001029

Dear Ms. Washburn:

Enclosed you will find copies of two Agreements. One is between Iliad, Inc. and Iliad Utility Services, Inc. for maintenance of systems owned by Iliad Utility Services, Inc. The second is a Billing Agreement between Water Services Company and Iliad Utility Services, Inc.

In checking in the company's records, the company is legally known as Iliad Utility Services, Inc. That is its corporate name. That is also the name under which the tariff is filed. Iliad Water Services, Inc. is the name that the company has been using informally for many years now. It has been in such common usage by the company personnel, that they had forgotten that their legal name was Iliad Utility Services, Inc. Company personnel felt that the name Iliad Water Services was a more descriptive name and more helpful for customers. The company is reviewing how to deal with confusion that may be generated because of the use of the two names.

The company is still reviewing its records to attempt to provide further information to the Commission in response to its information requests.
