Comment

Instructions, clarifications, or comments for this filing:

I don't agree with the proposed changes to the rule. The reason why is because human error can happen to anyone. One may forget to do the insurance on time. Also, if by some reason a credit card is stolen or expires, the insurance company can cancel the insurance until a new card is issued. If the new rule passes they simply can cancel our operating authority causing a mayor problem. A problem that could be fixed in a day if we keep the current rules.
