UTILITIES AND TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION

WASHINGTON UTILITIES AND TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION,

Complainant,

v.

SANDY POINT IMPROVEMENT
COMPANY,

Respondent.

DOCKET UW-121408

SANDY POINT IMPROVEMENT
COMPANY'S RESPONSE AND NON-
OPPOSITION TO COMMISSION
STAFF'S MOTION TO DISMISS,
WITHOUT PREJUDICE

1. Respondent Sandy Point Improvement Company ("Sandy Point"), by and through its counsel of record, Joseph A. Rehberger and Cascadia Law Group PLLC, files this Response and Non-Opposition to Commission Staff's Motion to Dismiss, Without Prejudice. Subject to and conditioned on the qualifications set forth below, Sandy Point supports and does not oppose the Commission Staff's motion to dismiss. Sandy Point further joins in and supports the Commission Staff's request for suspension of the filing date for responses to the filed cross-motions for summary determination.

2. The Commission Staff's motion seeks voluntary dismissal of this docket proceeding, in its entirety, and subject to certain conditions set forth in paragraph 3 of the Commission Staff's motion. Subject to these conditions, Sandy Point supports and does not oppose the Commission Staff's motion.

3. Sandy Point further joins in and supports Commission Staff's request to suspend the filing date for responses to the cross-motions for summary determination pending resolution of Commission Staff's motion to dismiss, which if granted, would terminate this proceeding.

DATED this 24th day of May 2013.
