Megan Banks, under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington, declares as follows:

1. I am employed by the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) as a Compliance Investigator in the Consumer Protection Section. As a Compliance Investigator, my responsibilities include conducting investigations regarding the business practices of regulated utility and transportation companies. As part of those duties, I investigate household goods carriers that may be operating without the required Commission permit.
2. I began an investigation into the activities of AAA Budget Moving, Demo & Hauling after finding a craigslist.org advertisement for the company. The company's craigslist.org advertisement provided a name, Darryl, and a telephone number, (206) 351-6565.<sup>1</sup>
3. On January 26, 2016, I conducted a reverse search on www.accurint.com for (206) 351-6565. The search produced multiple results for Darryl Horne. The most recent address for Mr. Horne was listed as 806 26th Ave. S., Apt. A, Seattle, WA 98144-3061.<sup>2</sup>
4. I reviewed Commission records related to AAA Budget Moving, Demo & Hauling to determine whether the company held a household goods permit. According to Commission records, a previous investigator sent a compliance letter on June 7, 2013, to Mr. Horne at 29904-21st Ave. S., Federal Way, WA 98003, (1) outlining the licensing process for household goods movers, directing Darryl Horne to (2) become licensed within a reasonable time, (3) cease unpermitted operations, and (4) outlining the consequences of operating as an unpermitted household goods mover in Washington State. No response was received and the letter was not returned.

5. On January 27, 2016, I conducted a search of the Washington Department of Revenue's Business Licensing Services for "Darryl Horne." The search produced one company, Darryl Emanuel Horne d/b/a AAA Budget Moving and Hauling, with a business and mailing address of 29904-21st Ave. S., Federal Way, WA 98003.<sup>3</sup>
6. On January 26, 2016, I sent a text message to (206) 351-6565 and requested an estimate for a move from a one-bedroom apartment in Queen Anne to a two-bedroom apartment in Burien. I received a text message in response on January 26, 2016, from a person who identified himself as "Darryl." "Darryl" responded the move would cost around $300 and would include two to three movers and a truck.
7. On February 8, 2016, I confirmed that no permit application had been submitted for "Darryl Horne," "AAA Budget Moving, Demo & Hauling," or "AAA Budget Moving and Hauling." A search on www.craigslist.org for (206) 351-6565 produced 92 advertisements between February 1 and February 8, 2016.<sup>4</sup> Multiple advertisements stated that the company specialized in hauling, demolition, and moving, and listed appliances and furniture as two of the items the company hauled.<sup>5</sup>
8. On February 10, 2016, I sent a text to (206) 351-6565 and requested an estimate for a move from a one bedroom apartment in Ballard to a three bedroom house in Burien. On February 10, 2016, an unidentified person responded by text message and quoted $350 for the move. When I asked, he stated that the costs included three men and that he would provide the truck.

DATED this 2 day of March, at Olympia, Washington.

MEGAN BANKS

<sup>3</sup> See Attachment C for the business license associated with Darryl Horne, which I printed on January 27, 2016.

<sup>4</sup> See Attachment D for the list of the company's craigslist.org advertisements, which I printed on February 8, 2016.
