Comments One of my friends used to take all her out of town visitors automatically on a duck tour. Another friend took the entire family every year. We took every niece and nephew on it when they came to Seattle to visit.
The amphibious style tour is incredibly unique and shows off Seattle beautifully. Driving around Seattle as an out-of-towner is really hard, and this tour not only shows them all the things someone can do, they get a beautiful section on the water with no traffic!
