

PACIFICORP
 2023 CLEAN ENERGY IMPLEMENTATION PLAN
 PUBLIC PARTICIPATION PLAN - REQUIREMENT REFERENCES

Rule (WAC)	Requirement	UE-210305 2023 PPP
480-100-655	2. Involve advisory groups in developing the timing and extent of meaningful and inclusive public participation throughout the development and duration of the CEIP including outreach and education serving vulnerable populations and highly impacted communities . PARTICIPATION PLAN includes:	Outreach development starts on page 2. Additional areas addressed below:
	2(a) Timing, methods, and language considerations for seeking and considering input from:	Timing for the public advisory groups is listed on page 8. Methods and addressing barriers to participate, such as language considerations, are covered on page 9
	2(a)(i) Vulnerable populations and highly impacted communities for the creation of or updates to customer benefit indicators and weighting factors	Addressing customers, including those in vulnerable populations and highly impacted communities developed through metrics in the customer benefit indicators starts on page 10
	2(a)(ii) All customers, including vulnerable populations and highly impacted communities , for the creation of, or updates to, customer benefit indicators and weighting factors
	2(b) Identification of barriers to public participation including, but not limited to: - language - cultural - economic - other factors	Language - advertising, meeting materials, surveys, and other communications in both English and Spanish discussed on page 6, 7, and 10 Also covered in Addressing barriers to participate starts on page 9
	2(c) Plans to provide info and data in broadly understood terms through meaningful participant education	Addressing barriers to participate starts on page 9
	2(d) A proposed schedule of public meetings or engagement, including advisory group meetings	Pages 8-9 lists upcoming meetings and engagements
	2(e) A proposed list of significant topics that will be discussed	Proposed significant topics are listed starting on page 15
	2(f) The date the utility will file the final CEIP with the commission;	Discussion on timing around CEIP addressed on page 1
	2(g) A link to a website accessible to the public and managed by the utility, to which the utility posts and makes publicly available the following information: 2(g)(i) Meeting summaries and materials for all relevant meetings, including materials for future meetings; 2(g)(ii) A current schedule of advisory group meetings and significant topics to be covered; 2(g)(iii) Information on how the public may participate in CEIP development;	PacifiCorp’s CEIP website, which is accessible in both English and Spanish shown on page 6: Washington Clean Energy Transformation Act & Equitable Distribution of Benefits (pacificorp.com) The CEIP webpage has the upcoming public participation opportunities, meeting information, surveys results, and Washington EAG meeting materials, and other workpapers the Company has put together to share for public reference
2(g)(iv) Final plans and biennial CEIP updates posted within 30 days of final commission action	Timing and status of the CEIP is discussed on page 1	