BACKGROUND

- 1* On December 1, 2000, the Commission entered its Second Supplemental Order in this proceeding resolving issues relating to certain compliance filings. The Order rejected tariff revisions failing to comply with prior orders, and directed the refiling of tariffs consistent with the Commission's Orders.
- 2* Qwest Corporation (the successor to U S WEST Communications, Inc.) on December 7, 2000 filed Advice No. 3169T containing replacement pages for its Tariffs Nos. U-42 and U-43. These included the following pages:

3 Commission Staff has reviewed the Company’s compliance tariff filing and states that it appears to comply in all substantive respects with the Commission’s Order.¹ No other party filed comments within the permitted time.

4 The Commission finds that the tariff revisions filed with the Commission by Qwest Corporation on December 7, 2000, are consistent with the Commission’s Twenty-Ninth Supplemental Order and therefore concludes that the substance of the tariff revisions should be approved as filed for effect on December 15, 2000.

5 Verizon Northwest, Inc. (the successor to GTE of the Northwest, Inc.) on December 8, 2000 filed Advice Nos. 959 and 960 containing replacement pages for its Tariffs Nos. U-42 and U-43. These included the following pages:

Resale Local Exchange Services,
WU U-22

Unbundled Network, WN U-21

¹ The pages were filed with a stated effective date inconsistent with the requirements of the order. The Company will be allowed, within five days after the date of this order, to refile identical tariff pages containing the proper effective date.

6 Commission Staff has reviewed the Company's compliance tariff filing and states that it appears to comply in all substantive respects with the Commission's Order. No other party filed comments within the permitted time.

7 The Commission finds that the tariff revisions filed with the Commission by the Verizon Northwest, Inc. on December 8, 2000, for effect on December 15, 2000, are consistent with the Commission's Twenty-Ninth Supplemental Order and therefore concludes that the substance of the tariff revisions should be approved as filed.

ORDER

THE COMMISSION ORDERS That:

8 The tariff revisions filed by Qwest Corporation on December 7, 2000, in accordance with the Twenty-Ninth Supplemental Order in this proceeding, shall become effective as filed on December 15, 2000, and that the rates, charges and conditions set forth in the tariff revisions are specified as the rates, charges, and conditions to be applicable to service on and after December 15, 2000, on the condition that Qwest files within seven (7) days the identical sheets showing an effective date of December 15, 2000.

9 The tariff revisions filed by Verizon Northwest, Inc., on December 8, 2000, in accordance with the Twenty-Ninth Supplemental Order in this proceeding, shall become effective as filed, and that the rates, charges and conditions set forth in the tariff revisions are specified as the rates, charges, and conditions to be applicable to service on and after December 15, 2000.

10 THE COMMISSION ORDERS FURTHER That it retains jurisdiction over the subject matter and the Parties to effectuate the provisions of this and prior orders in these proceedings.

DATED at Olympia, Washington, and effective this 14th day of December, 2000.
