2. I previously submitted an Affidavit, dated June 21, 2001, attesting to Qwest Corporation's solicitation of my residential local telephone business between the period I had sought to switch my local telecommunications service to AT&T and the time AT&T actually installed such service.

3. During the period described in my original Affidavit I never contacted Qwest and inform them that I was discontinuing or disconnecting my local service with them. Rather, Qwest sales representatives initiated the contact armed with the knowledge that I was in the process of switching my local service to AT&T.
