WUTC STAFF DATA REQUEST NO. 162:

RE: Targeted Electrification Pilot Phase 2

Witness Mannetti testifies that “customers will be benefited by PSE proactively pursuing targeted electrification programs and applying those lessons learned into future programs.” Mannetti, Exh. JM-1CT (R) at 23:12-13.

- a. How does PSE intend to evaluate distributional equity among the participants of the proposed TEP 2?
- b. Please identify the data PSE is collecting in order to assess the Targeted Electrification Pilot Phase 2, including which metrics are intended to address long-term and short-term public health, economic, and environmental benefits and the reduction of costs and risks; and energy security and resiliency? If data is not being collected to address any item in the list provided, please explain why not.

Response:

- a. See Puget Sound Energy’s (“PSE”) Response to WUTC Staff Data Request No. 161(a).
- b. See PSE’s Response to WUTC Staff Data Request No. 161(b).
