And how do you want to proceed this morning?  MR. MWANGI: Your Honor, I would like to go with the first option.  JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. You want to do the cease and desist?  MR. MWANGI: Um-hmm.  JUDGE PEARSON: Okay.  MR. MWANGI: However, I would like to mention, I have called Ms. Banks a few times regarding this option that I chose, and I've been working diligently toward the attainment of licensing.  Now, as luck would have it, I just a couple last week the license came. And I actually called Ms. Banks a couple days ago, I left her an e-mail I mean I left a voicemail, and we do have the license now.

MR. MARTIN: Okay. So by me saying cease and desist, that puts me in a position to where I have to receive a penalty: is that what that is?

JUDGE PEARSON: Regardless of what position you took, the Commission would most likely assess a penalty today unless you asked for a classification hearing and claim not to be providing household goods moving services, in which case you would have to prove that you weren't providing household goods moving services.

But these complaints were brought forward, and the Commission has already found probable cause. And you've seen Ms. Banks' declarations that include offers that she received and proof of advertisements. So it would be difficult for anyone who was brought here today to prove that they were not, in fact, offering household goods moves unless it was some case of mistaken identity or identity theft.

MR. MARTIN: Well, I was providing help with unload and load. That's what I was providing.

JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. Well, you can discuss that with Ms. Banks at the break and discuss what evidence that she's brought against you. She's the best person for you to discuss what the penalty recommendation should be at this point in time.

your own business, and to do your due diligence to determine what types of licenses that you would need to have to perform household goods moving services.

So the Commission's not under any obligation to contact you. The burden is on you to figure out which licenses and permits you need to conduct your business. But that's certainly something you can address with Ms. Banks at the break.

MR. MARTIN: Okay. Well, if I change my mind, can I do that here, or do I have to --

11 JUDGE PEARSON: You can change your mind 12 after talking with Ms. Banks, yes.

MR. MARTIN: Okay.

JUDGE PEARSON: You're free to do that.

Ms. Banks, do you have a recommendation with respect to the cease and desist?

MS. BANKS: Staff would agree with a cease and desist.

JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. Great. Thank you.

20 All right. You may have a seat.

Okay. So we're still waiting for

Ms. Bergman. I think at this point, it's about 9:25 a.m., we can take a recess and you can begin your discussions with the movers who are present here today.

And when Ms. Bergman -- or when Ms. Bergman

MR. MARTIN: Okay. So if I go the other route, am I saying that I want to go to court hearing or trial or something?

JUDGE PEARSON: You'd have another hearing here where you would be contesting that you ever offered to provide a household goods move or offered to a provide a truck in connection with a household goods move, and contesting that any of the documentation that has been put forth by Staff is real, basically. You'd have to prove that it's -- that it's not true.

MR. MARTIN: Okay. Well, like I said, the issue I have is I didn't know I was out of compliance. That's my -- I mean, I never got an e-mail, a notice, hey, you're out of compliance, you can't do this no more. I never got a notice like that.

So I'm just wondering, how can I get punished for something that I never even got an e-mail or a text or anything saying, hey, you're out of compliance, not even a phone call.

JUDGE PEARSON: So the Commission does send compliance letters as a courtesy to people who --

> MR. MARTIN: Right, I never got none of --JUDGE PEARSON: -- are conducting moves illegally; however, it is your responsibility to know the laws of Washington state if you're going to open arrives, if that is prior to the time when you have completed your conversations with these gentlemen, you can give me a call and I can come back into the hearing room and brief her on what her choices are and then we can proceed.

So at this point, like I said, we'll take a recess. You'll have a chance to review the cease and desist orders and the language with Staff, and there'll be some negotiation about the penalty. Typically, a portion of the penalty is suspended, which is meant to deter you from future illegal operations.

So you would pay a portion today, and the remaining portion of the $5,000 penalty would not become due and payable unless you violated the order at some point in the next two years.

So hopefully, within the next hour to hour and a half, we'll have all your orders prepared and we'll then call each of you back up, make sure that you understand the order, and I will sign it on the record today, and you will leave here with a copy of it.

Ms. Banks, is there anything else before we take a break?

MS. BANKS: No, not at this time.

24 JUDGE PEARSON: Okay.

Then at approximately 9:26 a.m., we are at

You've been to household goods training at least two times in the past, you've been a permit holder in the past, so this is not new information to you.  You voluntarily cancelled your permit in  March and then continued to provide household goods moves without a permit.  MR. BARTLETT: I had insurance, ma'am. I had a certificate of insurance.  JUDGE PEARSON: It doesn't matter. If you don't have an active permit, then you're providing those services  MR. BARTLETT: I didn't know the full I didn't know the full details of it, ma'am.  JUDGE PEARSON: You should have known the full details  MR. BARTLETT: I should have known.  JUDGE PEARSON: because this is covered

Well, you had an opportunity to negotiate a payment arrangement with Ms. Banks, and it sounds like you were unwilling or unable to do that. So at this point  MR. BARTLETT: Well, this is what I was willing to do, what I'm just talking about right as we speak right now.  JUDGE PEARSON: That was not an option that was presented to you, however. So your options were to accept the $1,000 penalty and make some sort of payment arrangement with Ms. Banks, which it sounds like you declined to do  MR. BARTLETT: How can you make payment arrangements when you don't have anything, ma'am? That's all I'm trying to say.  JUDGE PEARSON: I understand, but it sounds like there was not an attempt to make a payment arrangement at all, and that you were unwilling to reach an agreement with Ms. Banks.  Is my understanding of that correct?  MS. BANKS: That is correct.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	Page 36  JUDGE PEARSON: Yeah, and then pay the permit fee, that's right.  MR. BARTLETT: You're talking about getting really set back, ma'am.  JUDGE PEARSON: Mr. Bartlett, you are well aware of Commission rules and requirements. You've been to household goods training at least two times in the past, you've been a permit holder in the past, so this is not new information to you. 7	that happens here at the Commission.	7	Thank you very much. You're free to go.
8	MR. BARTLETT: Well, I'm trying to hey	8	MR. PETRIE: Thank you.
9	JUDGE PEARSON: I think we've reached the	9	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay.
10	conclusion at this point.	10	Docket TV-151658, James Mwangi. Good
11	MR. BARTLETT: Can we go back and talk about	11	morning, Mr. Mwangi.
12	this again?	12	MR. MWANGI: Good morning, your Honor.
13	JUDGE PEARSON: You cannot go back and talk	13	JUDGE PEARSON: And Ms. Banks, were you able
14	about this again. You had your opportunity, so I'd like	14	to reach a disposition with Mr. Mwangi?
15	you to step down now, and I'm going to call the next	15	MS. BANKS: Yes, we did reach an agreement.
16	docket.	16	Staff is recommending and Mr. Mwangi has
17	MR. BARTLETT: All right.	17	agreed to a $5,000 penalty with $4,500 suspended, and
18	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay.	18	$500 that he has already paid, I believe.
19	Docket TV-151655, Dexter Petrie. You can	19	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay.
20	just go ahead and take a seat.	20	So Mr. Mwangi, did you have a chance to
21	MR. PETRIE: Okay.	21	review the order?
22	JUDGE PEARSON: And Ms. Banks, what was the	22	MR. MWANGI: I did.
23	disposition of this case?	23	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. Great.
24	MS. BANKS: Mr. Petrie states that he is not	24	And you understand everything that's in it?
25	a part of this company and that it is his father's	25	MR. MWANGI: Perfectly.

2	classification hearing.	2	MS. BANKS: May I please approach the bench
3	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay.	3	with the order?
4	So do you have your calendar available so we	4	JUDGE PEARSON: Yes, absolutely.
5	could schedule that now?	5	MS. BANKS: Thank you.
6	MR. PETRIE: That's fine.	6	JUDGE PEARSON: All right. So just for the
7		7	record, Ms. Banks, it looks like you recommended two
	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. So I can tell you my		violations, one for operating a move, one for
8	availability. I'm available the morning of	8
9	November 10th, morning or afternoon on the 12th,	9	advertising, and a $4,500 portion of the penalty will be
10	afternoon only on November 16th, or any time on	10	suspended, and the company will pay the $500 penalty; is
11	November 17th.	11	that correct?
12	Ms. Banks, do you have a preference?	12	MS. BANKS: That is correct.
13	MS. BANKS: Staff would be available on any	13	JUDGE PEARSON: And did you receive any
14	of those dates.	14	payment for that today or is there a payment
15	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. So it sounds	15	3 3 3 3
16	MR. PETRIE: Morning is fine.	16	MS. BANKS: I believe there was a payment
17	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. Which of those dates	17	made today.
18	works for you?	18	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. You've paid the $500
19	MR. PETRIE: The 10th.	19
20	JUDGE PEARSON: The 10th? Okay. So why	20	MR. MWANGI: Yes, your Honor.
21	don't we go ahead and schedule that hearing for 9:30.	21	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. And you've already
22	Does that work for you?	22	received your permit; is that correct?
23	MR. PETRIE: That's fine.	23	MR. MWANGI: I have, yes.
24	JUDGE PEARSON: 9:30 a.m. on November 10th.	24	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. So just to reiterate,
25	We will issue an order, a prehearing conference order	25	in the event that you lose that permit in the next two

5	Okay?	5	Ms. Banks in advance of the hearing to understand what
6	MR. MWANGI: All right.	6	your options are?
7	JUDGE PEARSON: All right. So do you have	7	MS. BERGMAN: No, I hadn't.
8	any additional questions about this order before I sign	8	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. So the first option
9	it?	9	is to agree to cease and desist providing, offering to
10	MR. MWANGI: No, your Honor.	10	,
11	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. So I will go ahead	11	, , , ,
12	and sign it and pass that back to Ms. Banks, and I	12
13	believe you will leave here with a copy of this today.	13	So if you choose this option, you'll need to
14	MR. MWANGI: Okay.		demonstrate what you've done to shut down your business
15	JUDGE PEARSON: So it's official at this	15	either completely or partially to avoid further
16	point. And if you want to follow Mr. Tinnerstet, he	16	enforcement action by the Commission.
17	will get you a copy of that order and you will be free	17	The other thing you can do is ask for a

19	MR. MWANGI: All right.	19	you are not providing household goods moving services
20	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. Thank you so much.	20	and that the allegations in the complaint were
21	Ms. Banks, anything further?	21	incorrect.
22	MS. BANKS: I believe Ms. Bergman is now	22	So do you know which option you would like
23	here.	23	to choose today?
24	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. So this is Docket	24	MS. BERGMAN: Yes. I want to proceed
25	TV-151656 for Heidi Bergman, Alice the Mover.	25	with we have been actively moving, so we have been
	Page 42		Page 44
1	Are you Heidi Bergman?	1	actually, I was unaware that we did not have a permit.
2	MS. BERGMAN: Yes, I am.	2	JUDGE PEARSON: So you weren't aware that
3	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. If you could please	3	you'd been cancelled for lack of insurance did you
4	stand and raise your right hand, I'll swear you in.	4	know that your insurance had lapsed?
5		5	MS. BERGMAN: It was a combination of things
6	HEIDI BERGMAN, witness herein, having been	6	that happened.
7	first duly sworn on oath,	7	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay.
8	was examined and testified	8	MS. BERGMAN: I have I remember calling
9	as follows:	9	on I knew that our insurance was, like, on the 24th,
10		10	we got coverage on that day. But I know that by the
11	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. Go ahead and be	11	time it got here, it was a few days later. And so my
12	seated.	12	understanding was that if it didn't get here on the 24th
13	So just briefly, I want to go over what I	13	that you guys couldn't really verify the actual date, so
14	went over with all of the other companies that were here	14	they counted it as being late.
15	this morning.	15	So I filled out an application and sent it
16	My name's Rayne Pearson. I'm an	16	in with a certain amount, and I remember getting a call
17	administrative law judge for the Utilities and	17
18	Transportation Commission.	18
19	And you were you were called here today	19
20	because the Commission filed a complaint alleging that	20	And so at that point, that's what I
21	your company performed or advertised to perform work as	21	remember, and then everything kind of changed for me,
22	a household goods carrier without the required permit.	22	so my daughter was murdered and
23
22	And you understand that. I'm sure.	23	JUDGE PEARSON: I'M sorry to near that.
24	And you understand that, I'm sure.  MS. BERGMAN: I do.	23	JUDGE PEARSON: I'm sorry to hear that.  MS. BERGMAN: mv family tried to take

4	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. So at this point I	4	JUDGE PEARSON: So I will sign this order
5	think we should take a brief recess so that you can meet	5	and hand it back to you, Ms. Banks.
6	with Ms. Banks and hopefully come to an agreement and	6	So we will get you a copy of this, which you
7	sign an agreed order here today.	7	can take home with you. And then after you get your
8	MS. BERGMAN: Okay.	8	copy, you are free to go today. So you can go ahead and
9	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay?	9	follow Mr. Tinnerstet there.
10	So I would anticipate you might need	10	MS. BERGMAN: Thank you very much.

12	MS. BANKS: Yeah.	12	Okay. Ms. Banks, do you have any additional
13	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. Why don't you just	13	information about Docket TV-151680, Daniel Zeufeldt?
14	give me a call in my office, and then we can resume.	14	MS. BANKS: Yes. Staff has received
15	So we'll be off the record at recess.	15	information and has confirmed this information that
16	(A break was taken from	16	Mr. Zeufeldt has had a medical emergency.
17	11:24 a.m. to 11:58 a.m.)	17	At this point, Staff would like to recommend
18		18	a motion to dismiss his complaint.
19	We will back on the record a little before	19	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. So I will grant that
20	12:00 p.m. following a brief recess.	20	motion to dismiss the complaint. I will dismiss it
