FCC Form 481 (July 2020), Line 610
Statement Describing Ability to Function in Emergency Situations Per Instructions for Completing FCC Form 481

At line 600 of FCC Form 481, Kalama Telephone Company (the “Company”) certified that it is able to function in emergency situations as set forth in 47 C.F.R § 54.202(a)(2). This means that the Company has a reasonable amount of back-up power to ensure functionality without an external source, is able to reroute traffic around damaged facilities, and is capable of managing traffic spikes resulting from emergency situations. This statement describes how the Company is prepared to provide continued service in an emergency situation.

The Company has back-up batteries that provide service for its central office during a commercial power outage, with the capacity to function for at least eight hours. In addition, there is a natural gas powered generator available which can operate as long as the natural gas supply is not interrupted. The generator will also operate with propane in case the natural gas supply is interrupted. The generator automatically starts during any power outage or spike in commercial power that powers the central office and business office. Further, the Company has propane generators installed at its remote sites. In addition, there are also portable generators that can be deployed to the Central Office or any remote if an onsite generator fails.

The Company has route redundancy and diversity for interexchange access service, E-911 trunking and SS7 signaling circuits.

The Company’s outside plant is primarily buried and, thus, protected from most weather events. The Company’s central office switch capacity is engineered to accommodate traffic spikes, and its interexchange facilities also have the capacity to provide additional circuits for interexchange carriers should the need arise.

In the case of isolated groups of customers that may suffer damage due to a cable cut, the Company maintains sufficient staff and other resources to be able to put customers back in service in a very short amount of time. The Company’s emergency service equipment is located within its exchange and requires very little time to dispatch.

Doing Business With Us

TELEPHONE INFORMATION

❖ Eligible Telecommunications Carrier

Kalama Telephone Company has been the local telephone company service in the Kalama area since 1904. During the intervening years, we have worked hard to build a telephone system that would provide high quality telecommunications service to the communities we serve. We have done this, notwithstanding the higher cost of serving areas in the State of Washington and when few, if any, other telephone companies are interested in serving our communities.

We have served and intend to continue to serve both residential and business customers in our service area with advanced telecommunications including internet access, high speed data services, special calling features and voice mail.

The basic services offered by Kalama Telephone Company are comprised of several components. At minimum, these include:

Services offered

Single party, voice grade access to the public switched network, including an unlimited amount of local usage (basic grade of service)

Monthly Charge
Residence $18.00 Business $21.00

Dual tone multi-frequency signaling or its functional equivalent (i.e., tone dialing)
No additional charge

Access to emergency 911 services

There is no additional charge by Kalama Telephone Company to end user customers for the ability to access emergency 911 services. ****

Access to operator service

There is no additional charge by Kalama Telephone Company for the ability to call the operator. However, the call may involve a charge depending on the service requested and the rates of the company whose operator handles the call.

Access to inter-exchange (Long Distance) services

There is no additional charge by Kalama Telephone Company to end-user customers for the ability to place and receive calls through long distance networks of inter-exchange carriers that offer service through our network. However, the call may involve a charge from the inter-exchange (long distance) carrier depending on the type of the call.

Access to directory assistance

There is no additional charge by Kalama Telephone Company to end user customers for the ability to call Directory Assistance. However, the call may involve a Directory Assistance charge, the amount of which depends on the area called and the rates of the company whose operators accessed.

Toll limitations service for qualifying low-income customers

There is no additional charge by Kalama Telephone Company to qualifying low income consumers for toll blocking service. Qualifying low-income customers are generally those participating in the Lifeline program.

Lifeline Program

Kalama Telephone Company participates in the federal Lifeline program. Under this program, Kalama Telephone Company offers to qualifying low-income customers a discount off of the monthly rate for basic residential exchange service. For service on non-tribal reservation lands, Kalama Telephone Company current discounted monthly rate for Lifeline residential service is $13.25. Additional discounts may apply for service to qualifying low-income customers on tribal property.

*The charges set forth are subject to change, and in some instances are subject to change without notice. Certain non-recurring charges may also apply to installation or change of service. Applicable Federal, State, County and municipal taxes and surcharges, including a federally-mandated end user surcharge per line are in addition to these amounts.  Discounts off of this rate are available to qualifying low-income customers. *State and County taxes apply per line to fund the provisions of this capability.

These services are available to all qualifying subscribers of Kalama Telephone Company. The charges for these services are reflected each month on our normal telephone bill and may be accompanied by charges for services provided by Kalama Telephone Company. The services listed above are those that Kalama Telephone Company offers and must advertise in order to be eligible for federal support funds that are used to help offset the high cost of serving rural areas and bringing affordable telephone service to residents and businesses in rural areas. Other services are available by contacting Kalama Telephone Company's business office at 360-673-2755.
