Tips & Tricks for Facebook Selling & Buying on Facebook Marketplace | Dolly Blog

other sites are offering for similar products is a good way to see if this is your best bet. Of course, there are advantages to Facebook Marketplace that other sites won't have, so if you're intent on buying through Facebook, consider asking the seller to honor the price of the product you found elsewhere to salvage both the deal and your sanity.

PSA: You Don't Have to Accept a Seller's Friend Request to Buy From Them

You can message back and forth with people you're not Facebook friends with through the messenger app. You do not have to be their Facebook friend. You do not have to give them your phone number. If a seller is asking that you friend them, proceed with caution.

Just Like with Craigslist, Don't Wire Transfer for Purchases

This is pretty straightforward: if you're making a purchase on Facebook Marketplace, don't wire transfer the payment. Some safer alternatives:

- Paying through Facebook Messenger
- PayPal
- Venmo
- Square Cash

Whichever payment method you choose, make sure you're getting your item before paying – otherwise, your money is as good as gone.
