Discussion

On September 12, 2005, Adam's Moving and Delivery Service, LLC (company) filed Application No. P-79400 requesting permanent household goods authority.

The commission granted the company temporary authority subject to conditions pending a decision on its application for permanent authority. The company has operated under Household Goods Carrier Permit No. HG-62045 since October 18, 2005.

Application No. P-79400 appeared on the commission's October 24, 2005, application docket subject to comment for no less than 180 days while the company conducted operations under its temporary authority. No comments were received.

Under the provisions of WAC 480-15-330 the commission will grant or deny an application for permanent authority after conducting a complete review of the application filing, supporting statements, reports, or other information necessary to determine fitness, public interest, and current or future public convenience and necessity.

Adam French is 100% owner of Adam's Moving and Delivery Service, LLC. He states that he purchased a pickup truck three years ago for personal hauling needs. After helping other family members with their hauling needs he decided to start a delivery service. He states that he has not been convicted of a Class A or B felony or previously been denied authority based on fitness.

Compliance staff worked with the company providing technical assistance during its temporary operations. Investigator Leon Macomber completed an economic and safety review of the company's operations and found the company in general compliance. On June 12, 2006, Investigator Macomber recommended the applicant be considered for permanent authority.

Adam's Moving and Delivery Service, LLC is registered with the Secretary of State and holds a valid UBI number with tax registration, industrial insurance, and unemployment insurance accounts.

During the company's temporary operations the commission received no customer complaints regarding this company's service.

Recommendation

P-79400 is an uncontested application and therefore no hearing is required. There are no outstanding issues that suggest staff should ask the commission to set the application for hearing.

I recommend that Licensing Services Staff prepare an order to grant Application No. P-79400 without hearing and reissue Permit No. HG-62045 to Adam's Moving and Delivery, LLC as unrestricted permanent authority to operate as a household goods carrier in the state of Washington.
