RE: Name Protest of Eagle Moving LLC in Docket TV-150038

Dear Mr. Lang:

I am responding to your February 5, 2015 letter to the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (UTC). In your letter, you object to the commission granting household goods authority to Eagle Moving LLC without changing its name. You are concerned that the similarity of the name will cause confusion to customers.

As you noted, according to WAC 480-15-390, a household goods carrier may not operate under a name that is similar to that of another carrier without that carrier's written permission or commission approval. The commission approved the name, Eagle Moving LLC, and we do not believe it will mislead the shipping public or result in unfair or destructive competitive practices, especially since the two companies are located in different parts of the state.

Eagle Moving LLC, based in Bremerton, Washington, received temporary household goods authority on January 13, 2015. The name, Eagle Moving LLC, in Docket TV-150038, will remain the same.

Thank you for bringing your concerns to our attention.

Sincerely,

Suzanne Stillwell
Licensing Services Manager
