22		22	MR. RAICH: Yeah.
23		23	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. Thank you.
24		24	So there are two companies who've not
I		25	entered an appearance today. Those companies are

- 1 subject to being held in default and having an order
- 2 entered against them without having a chance to address
- 3 the Commission, and I will take those cases up later
- 4 this morning
- 5 So each of you are here because the
- 6 Commission filed a complaint alleging that your company
- is performing or advertising to perform work as a
- 8 household goods carrier without the required permit
- 9 that's issued by the Commission.
- 10 So the purpose of today's proceeding is to
- 11 formally explain what your choices are and then hear
- 12 from each of you regarding which option you want to
- 13 pursue.
- You can choose one of two options on behalf
- 15 of your company, either cease and desist providing,
- 16 offering, and advertising unpermitted household goods
- 17 services. So if you choose that option, you will need
- 18 to demonstrate what you've done to shut down your
- 19 business either completely or partially such as taking
- 20 down your website or changing your online
- 21 advertisements.
- 22 The second choice is to ask for a formal
- 23 classification hearing, and if you choose that option,
- 24 you're contesting the allegations in the complaint and
- claim not to be conducting household goods moving

- services. And if you choose that option, we will
- 2 schedule a formal hearing for a date in the near future
- 3 with a deadline two to three weeks from now for both
- 4 your company and the Commission to declare witnesses and
- file all exhibits.
- 6 So each of you has a right to be heard by
- 7 the Commission. I will call each of you up to do that
- 8 individually. Ms. Rachel Jones, who is seated over here
- 9 to my right, will be representing the Commission, and if
- 10 you've not already met her or spoke to her on the phone,
- 11 she is a Commission compliance investigator.
- And now that we've gone over the options
- 13 that you have today, I will explain the rest of today's
- 14 procedures. So I will call you each up here in a few
- 15 minutes so you can make your choice on how to proceed,
- 16 and at that time, I will swear you in so that anything
- 17 that you say will be considered sworn testimony.
- 18 Once you're sworn in, I will ask if you
- 19 understand your options for today's hearing and then ask
- 20 you to state your choice. And if there's anything else
- 21 that you want to explain to me, you can do so at that
- 22 time.
- 23 In each of the complaints, Commission Staff
- $24\,\,$ has alleged that you're providing household goods moving
- services without a permit and is also seeking to have a

 m 1}\,$ penalty imposed. The law sets the maximum penalty for
- 2 each violation at $5,000 per violation, and Staff will
- 3 be making a penalty recommendation as part of any agreed
- 4 order. Ms. Jones will be explaining that
- 5 recommendation, but the Commission will make the final
- 6 decision about the amount of penalty to be imposed.
 - So I see someone else has just joined us in
- 8 the room. What's your name, sir?
- 9 MR. PONCE: Ed Ponce.
 - JUDGE PEARSON: Okay.
- 11 MR. PONCE: Eduardo Ponce.
- 12 JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. So that is Docket
- 13 TV-170169 America's Moving Machine?
- 14 MR. PONCE: Correct.
- 15 JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. Thank you.
- Okay. So Ms. Jones will be explaining and
- 17 presenting any penalty recommendation, but the
- 18 Commission will make the final decision about the
- 19 appropriate penalty to be imposed.
- 20 So if you choose to testify about how you
- 21 are getting out of the household goods business, I will
- allow you to make a statement explaining how you plan to
- 23 do that. And depending on what proof you can provide,
- 24 you should be able to reach an agreed order resolving
- 25 this matter with Commission Staff, and you can speak to

- Ms. Jones about that during the recess.
- 2 And if you choose to contest the allegations
- 3 in the complaint, like I said, we will schedule another
- 4 hearing, so if that's the choice that you're going to
- 5 make, it would be helpful to know your availability for
- 6 the next month or so when you come up here.
- 7 After I hear from each of you, we'll take a
- 8 break to give Staff time to meet with each of you and
- 8 break to give Stair time to meet with each or you are
- 9 prepare a final disposition for your cases.
- 10 And, Ms. Jones, I'll go ahead and swear you
- 11 in at this point. If you could please stand and raise
- 12 your right hand.

13

- (Rachel Jones sworn.)
- 14 JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. Thank you.
- So I'll begin with the companies who have
- 16 made an appearance today, and then after hearing from
- 17 each of those companies, I will address the companies
- 18 who have not appeared today, which I believe is just one
- 19 at this point.
- 20 And, Ms. Jones, when I call those
- 21 nonappearance cases, you can make a brief summary of the
- 22 status of each case and can set your motion for default.
- 23 Okay. So first was Docket TV-170168,
- 24 Tiraogo Simpore, d/b/a TS Moving Services. If you could
- 25 come forward. Oh, to the table, I'm sorry. And if you
