only five stars...

this is yelp's fault to limit the quality service from paul and his team of on the go moving. these guys know how to give the best and pleasant moving experience to their customers. initially i thought the moving rate is moderately priced but considering the quality service that i got, it is very cheap. they are timely and prompt, and took real good care of my stuff. moving four bed room house is quite big moving especially when a customer has four kids. however, they finished it within five hours including travel time from/to their location from redmond to bellevue. they are very friendly and worked so hard in hard to access location, plus moved everything to where we wanted without any complaints.

we so much appreciate their effort and diligence. i highly recommend this mover. and special thanks to paul and his crew. thank you very much.
