Complainants,

v.

AT&T COMMUNICATIONS OF THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST, INC.; and T-NETIX, INC.,

Respondents.

DOCKET NO. UT-042022

DECLARATION OF KENNETH L.
WILSON RE: CONFIDENTIALITY

I, KENNETH L. WILSON, hereby declare that:

1. I am personally familiar with the facts set forth in this declaration. If called to testify about any of these matters, I could and would competently testify thereto.

2. I am a senior consultant and member of Boulder Telecommunications Consultants, LLC in Boulder, Colorado. My office address is 970 11th Street, Boulder, Colorado 80302. Pertinent biographical information, including my employment by Bell Labs and AT&T Local Services Division, is contained in a separate declaration of today's date.

3. During my employment with AT&T, I never possessed confidential information regarding phone calls to correctional institutions. I was not employed by, and I did not work for, the branch of AT&T that handled the contract for the Washington Department of Corrections, and I had no knowledge of the contract.

4. When I left AT&T as a retiree, any confidential information of any kind was returned to AT&T. I am not aware of any confidentiality agreement or any other agreement under which I assumed obligations that would, upon leaving my employment with AT&T, prevent me from participating in or rendering an expert opinion in this case.

5. In May 1998, my consulting firm signed a contract with AT&T. I worked under this contract through January 2003. My final invoice under that contract was on February 6, 2003. The contract contained a two-year non-compete clause, which has now expired. The non-compete was limited in scope. It precluded my firm from performing services of a similar nature for LECs such as Qwest, and did not purport to bar the firm from working for other persons or entities.

6. The AT&T consulting contract also included a nondisclosure agreement governing disclosure of AT&T proprietary information. During my consulting work for AT&T, I had very limited exposure to confidential information from AT&T as I was a consultant and not protected by the attorney-client privilege. I did not receive any information that would be relevant to this case. I had no knowledge of the AT&T contract with the Washington Department of Corrections.

7. I participated in two cases in Washington for AT&T as a consultant. One was a Section 271 case filed by Qwest. The other was a suit that AT&T filed against Qwest on access trunking. Both cases were heard by the WUTC. In the access trunking case, I had access to AT&T trunking data in Washington. This information did not, however, include data with respect to entities to which the AT&T trunking connected or data identifying the customer end points. Any confidential information I had was returned or destroyed and all electronic files were destroyed.

8. I also performed some consulting work for AT&T at the national level, assisting with issues before the FCC in the Qwest 271 filing, though it was not under the consulting contract referenced above. That work concluded in November 2003 and did not involve any AT&T confidential information. To the extent the case involved any confidential information, it was from Qwest, and that information was all returned or destroyed.

9. AT&T's counsel asserts that any expert opinion I render in this case "inevitably will result in the disclosure or improper use of the proprietary and confidential information to which [I] was granted access, in confidence, as an employee of and consultant to AT&T." Letter from Peters to Counsel dated April 29, 2005. AT&T has not identified any confidential information it believes is in my possession, has not shown how any such information would "inevitably" be disclosed in this proceeding, has not identified any "obligations not to disclose or improperly use such information," and has not explained what it means by "improper use" of such information. In any event, I fail to understand the basis for this statement as: (1) I am not aware of any AT&T confidential information in my possession that would be relevant to this case; (2) any opinion I render, if based on such information, would be filed under seal and subject to the Protective Order governing this case; and (3) I have reviewed the Protective Order and have signed Exhibits B & C, which obligate me to protect any confidential information to which I become privy.

I declare under penalty of perjury and in accordance with the laws of the State of Washington that the foregoing is true and correct.

Signed this 2nd day of May, 2005, at Boulder, Colorado.

Kenneth L. Wilson
