Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) Theodora M. Mace entered Order 01 in this docket, an initial order as defined in WAC 480-07-820, on June 21, 2006.

Neither party sought administrative review of the initial order. The Commission did not exercise administrative review on its own motion. Respondent remitted the subject penalty amount on July 3, 2006.

The time for seeking administrative review ended on July 11, 2006. Therefore, under RCW 80.01.060(3) the initial order became final on July 12, 2006, by operation of law.

In allowing this order to become final, the commission finds that the result is appropriate to the facts as found, but does not necessarily endorse the order's reasoning and conclusions. If cited in the future, the order must be identified as an ALJ order and its weight, if any, will depend on the quality of the decision.

Sincerely,

CAROLE WASHBURN
Executive Secretary
