

BEFORE THE WASHINGTON
UTILITIES AND TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION

In the Matter of Determining the Proper Carrier Classification of, and Complaint for Penalties against:

DUSTIN WICK d/b/a LIFTERS MOVING

DOCKET TV-161207

DECLARATION OF
RACHEL JONES

Rachel Jones, under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington, declares as follows:

1. I am employed by the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) as a Compliance Investigator in the Consumer Protection Section. As a Compliance Investigator, my responsibilities include conducting investigations regarding the business practices of regulated utility and transportation companies. As part of those duties, I investigate household goods carriers that may be operating without the required Commission permit.
2. I began an investigation into the activities of Lifters Moving on September 2, 2016, after an internet search on www.craigslist.org. The advertisement stated, "Moving help on the way 55/90 an hour Also truck and mover special (Bellevue(all Washington locations)). Hello, We are Lifters Moving. We have strong and experienced movers to help you get the job done. Our movers are mostly Ex-military and have all the traits of somebody you would trust around your children and at the same time lift a 500lb piece of furniture safely. For your move you will get two, three or four experienced movers, a truck, dollies, straps, blankets, and a tool box with just about everything including disassembling and reassembling tools specifically furniture and bed frames. We charge $90.00 an hour for two men and a truck and $27.50 an hour for just labor. We will do everything to make sure your move is done quickly and in a very professional manner. We move anything from a small desk to an entire large legal firm in downtown Seattle. We have a three hour minimum for most moves. Along with excellent moving team we also have a cleaning professional to complete the moving process. The cleaning staff specializes in move in and out cleanings which gives you the hope of a deposit return and peace of mind! For either service please don't hesitate to call Thank you! Please call our booking manager at 253-820-4641 or myself Alex at 425-599-9130, if I am busy helping with a move please text me your name, address, phone number, Date and time of you move and how long you plan to utilize us. That way I can check my schedule before I call you back. Thank you, The team at Lifters Moving.” I found another advertisement on www.yelp.com for Lifters Moving.¹

3. I completed a search on U.S. Department of Transportation Safety and Fitness Electronic Records (SAFER), Department of Revenue, Washington Secretary of State, Washington State Department of Licensing, Better Business Bureau, and Safety Measurement System (SMS) produced no results. I reviewed Commission records on September 2, 2016, related to Lifters Moving to determine whether the company held a household goods permit. According to Commission records neither Dustin Wick nor Lifters Moving have ever applied for, or received, a household goods permit.²
4. On September 20, 2016, I sent a text to (253) 820-4641 under a fictitious name to get a quote on a move. I requested a quote for a move from a two-bedroom apartment in Renton to a three-bedroom house in Renton. I stated, “I need both. Truck and movers. How much would that be? I got a reply stating, “It’s $99.99 per hour plus tax with a minimum of 3 hours. There is also a $35 non taxed fuel fee. Because you are over 45 min from home base (Lynnwood) Id have to charge a non taxed travel fee as well. ☹ BUT. Let me see what I can do about giving you a deal. When are you planning on moving?” I replied, “Sept. 29.”³
5. On September 22, 2016, I found an up-to-date advertisement on www.craigslist.org, www.yelp.com, www.indeed.com, and Google+.⁴
6. On October 12, 2016, a compliance letter was sent to Dustin Wick to cease and desist as a household goods carrier in the state of Washington, until a permit is obtained from the Commission.⁵
7. On October 28, 2016, I sent a text to (425) 599-9130 under a fictitious name to get a quote on a move. I requested help in moving from a four-bedroom house in Lynnwood to a house in Everett. I received a text back stating, “$99.99 per hour plus

Good morning Chelsea
I saw your ad on Craigslist. I'm looking for help with a local move. I'm moving from a
2 brm apt in Renton to a
3brdm house in Renton.
Can you please give me
a quote?

Sure! Are you needing a truck or just labor?

Tue, Sep 20, 3:44 PM

I need both. Truck and movers? How much would that be

It's $99.99 per hour plus tax with a minimum of 3

$35 non taxed fuel fee.
Because you are over 45

(Lynnwood) I'd have to charge a non taxed
travel fee as well.
:(BUT...let me see what I can do about giving you a deal. When are you planning on moving?

Sept 29

May I have the addresses you're moving from and to?

Here's what I can do...how about I make it $95 per hour (save $5 an hour there) you'll still be paying the fuel charge of $35 and I'll have to charge $40 for travel since the rental truck charges by the mile....only charging you one way though. Then I'll also take tax off. So for 3 hours (the minimum) the total cost would be $360. Any additional hour would remain the same...$95 an hour no tax. We start the time when we arrive at your house and end when we leave. We do not charge you to pick up and drop off the truck which is a

What a fantastic, hardworking, intelligent and really nice bunch of guys. I had a lot of stuff I needed to have moved at my property, which included a garage full of stuff, furniture and appliances, a fully loaded 6x12 ft trailer, and 8 slabs of glass counter top at 700 lbs a piece sitting in my driveway where the crane left them. Drew, Kyle, Beau and a another Drew did an absolutely amazing job. One of the original four guys wasn't able to make it, and Drew, Kyle and Beau moved all the stuff from upstairs to downstairs and also emptied out the garage, and then the three of them tried to move a slab themselves. They were able to move it amazingly enough and lifted into Drew's pick up bed, but it really didn't seem safe. I tried to find a slab dolly for rent without any success, and they tried to find a fourth person as well as a slab dolly. They succeeded in both, and while we waited for the second Drew to arrive, Drew and Kyle went to pick up the 3-ton lifting thing from the rental place. The four of them moved those 8 slabs a couple of hundred feet and loaded them into the garage, moved everything back in, then pushed the loaded trailer back into the carport. Amazing job with no one hurt and no damage.

Issues with this service

- 1) Will not release license/bond information when requested
- 2) Will not give receipt for 6 hours work when requested
- 3) They sent driver who did not have auto insurance
- 4) Driver damaged my car to the tune of $1,600
- 5) Business owner Alex says damage is 'personal' matter and will not release drivers name or help with repairs

Their employees who are supposedly 'background checked' per their multiple Craigslist postings apparently don't need auto insurance and any damage done by them to your personal property will not be covered by the business.

I guess I just happened to request service from this team on the wrong day - a $575 job cost me over $2,000 due to their neglect.

Had Drew and Kyle came out and unloaded us with no effort on our part. Great customer service and NONE of my stuff was damaged which has not been my experience with other companies. Would definitely hire these movers again!

RE: Household Goods Moving in Washington State

Dear Mr. Wick:

The Utilities and Transportation Commission has information that you are conducting household goods moves within the state of Washington. Advertisements for your household goods services have been found on www.craigslist.com and www.yelp.com. You do not have a valid permit, as required by state law, to conduct this type of work. Conducting household goods moves requires a permit issued by the commission.

To avoid enforcement action, your complete household goods permit application, supporting materials, and application fee must be submitted to the commission by Oct. 26, 2016.

Until you obtain a permit, you must immediately cease operating as a household goods mover in Washington State. Operating as a household goods mover without the required permit is illegal and subject to a penalty of $5,000 per violation. This means that you may receive this penalty for each day you operate in violation of the law.

You must also immediately cease advertising as a household goods mover in Washington State. Advertising for the transportation of property for compensation in Washington without a proper permit is against the law. The penalty for advertising without a permit is $5,000 per violation. This means that you may receive a penalty for each and every advertisement. At this time, the commission has documented advertisements for household goods moving services from Lifters Moving.

If you advertise or operate as a household goods mover without a permit, the commission will take enforcement action against you. Such action may include the above-mentioned financial penalties; and you will be served with a subpoena and be required to appear before a judge.

Again, to avoid enforcement action, your complete application, supporting materials, and application fee must be submitted to the commission by Oct. 26, 2016.

If you have questions about the household goods laws, please contact Rachel Jones, Compliance Investigator, at (360) 664-1129.

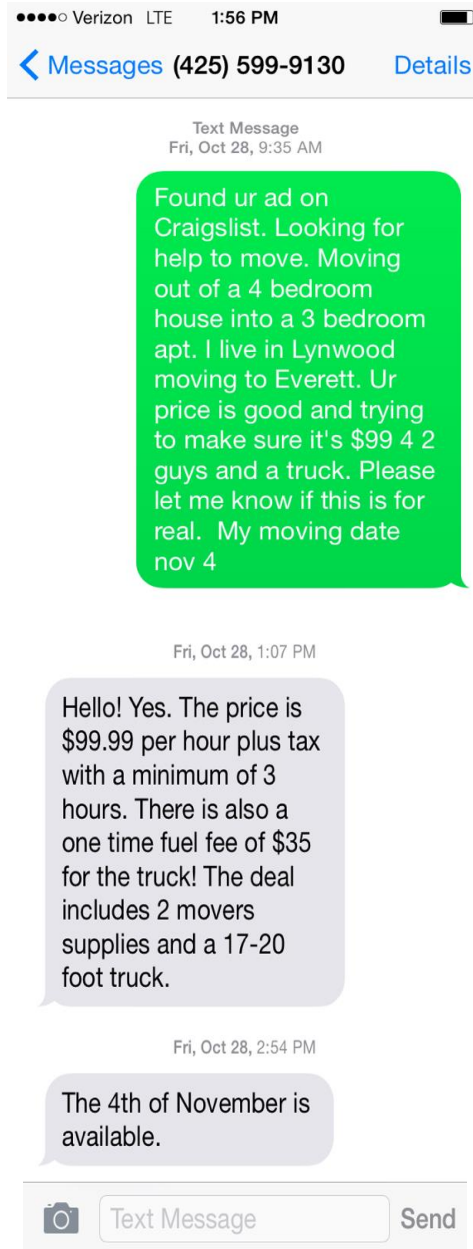

Should you decide to apply for a household goods moving permit, please note that you still may not operate as a household goods mover in Washington State until you have received a permit. To request a permit application, please call (360) 664-1222. You may also download an application from the commission's website at www.utc.wa.gov/mover.

Sincerely,

Susie Paul, Compliance Investigations Manager
