RE: Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission v. Airus, Inc.
Docket UT-170431

TO ALL PARTIES:

On June 22, 2017, the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) assessed a $1,000 penalty against Airus, Inc. (Company) in the above-referenced docket for failure to submit a complete annual report or pay the regulatory fee. The Commission offered to suspend $750 of the penalty and then waive it on the conditions that the Company file a complete annual report, pay its regulatory fee, and pay the unsuspended portion of the penalty within 15 days of receiving the Penalty Assessment.

On August 14, 2017, Commission staff (Staff) filed a letter in this docket informing the Commission that the Company has not met the conditions, and recommending that the Commission impose the $750 suspended portion of the penalty.

On August 23, 2017, Staff filed an additional letter stating that the Company had provided the complete annual report on August 21, along with documentation showing an attempt to email the report on July 5 to Staff, albeit at an incorrect address. In consideration of the Company's attempt and ultimate compliance, Staff altered its position, recommending to suspend the remaining penalty and close the docket.

The Commission has reviewed the record in this docket and accepts Staff's recommendation. The Commission waives the suspended portion of the penalty and closes this docket.
