Dear Ms. Maxwell:

CenturyLink is in receipt of your letter dated September 16, 2021, which requests responses to certain informal data requests relating to “data regarding company actions, plans, and responses related to arrearages, disconnections, late payments, payment arrangements, and financial hardships experienced by telecommunications company customers.”

Please be advised that, due the broad scope and nature of the requests, CenturyLink will require additional time to provide detailed responses. CenturyLink anticipates providing complete responses on or before October 12, 2021.

Notwithstanding CenturyLink’s efforts to respond to your September 16, 2021 informal data requests, CenturyLink hereby reserves the right to object to such data requests. Further, CenturyLink hereby reserves, and expressly does not waive, all rights, remedies, and defenses related to the above-referenced data request responses and the subject matters thereto.

Sincerely,
