

Exhibit B

Zillah motorist dies after hitting tractor

POSTED ON MARCH 3, 2015

Email ↗

Print 🖨

Comments 💬

f Share

🐦 Tweet

Yakima Herald-Republic

ZILLAH, Wash. — A 55-year-old Zillah woman was killed Sunday evening when her car rolled after striking a tractor on the Yakima Valley Highway, according to the Washington State Patrol.

Vickie A. Goodno was driving east at high speed about 2 miles east of Zillah when the accident occurred about 6:50 p.m., the State Patrol said in a news release.

Goodno's 2003 Mazda Protege struck a John Deere 4120 tractor then rolled, the patrol said.

Goodno was not wearing a seat belt and died at the scene, the patrol said.

The tractor's driver, Ralph T. Vandermeulen, 46, of Zillah, was not hurt, the patrol said.

The cause of the accident remains under investigation, the patrol said.

Featured Videos

Back to Sheriff's Main Page

YAKIMA SHERIFF'S OFFICE PRESS RELEASE

Date: 10-04-14

Case #: 14C15707

Car vs. Farm Equipment Accident

10-04-14 at approximately 0624 hrs. Yakima County Sheriff's Office deputies responded to a motor vehicle accident involving a car and a swather on N. Brownstown Rd. just north of Branch Rd.

The swather was traveling southbound on N. Brownstown Rd. without a pilot car and was struck by a car driving northbound on N. Brownstown Rd and was driven by a 50 year old White Swan man. It was determined that the Swather's width extended it over the implied center line.

The 50 year old driver of the car was transported to a local hospital where it is believed that he suffered from several broken vertebrae. His 28 year old passenger and the driver of the swather were not injured in the collision.

Sgt. Ed Levesque
Yakima County Sheriff's Office
509-574-2500

Back to Sheriff's Main Page

EXHIBIT NO. _____ (KM-9)

